PLANS FOR FINE NEW BUILDING ADOPTED

Contract For Structure on North Broadway to Be Let In 30 Days

ANOTHER LOT BOUGHT TO ENLARGE GROUNDS

Seventy-One Guest Rooms Are Provided By Myron Hunt, Architect

Plans for Santa Ana's new tourist hotel, to be built on North Broadway, have been adopted, and probably within thirty days bids for its construction will be received and a contract let.

Today the trustees of the hotel fund, W. A. Huff, John Cubbon, H. J. Forgy, G. B. Shattuck and A. J. Crookshank, announced that estimates of costs are such that they have no hesitancy in announcing that the hotel will be built.

Briefly described, the hotel is to be in the style of an old English inn, three stories high, built in the shape of a T with the top of the T resting on Birch street, containing seventy-one rooms for guests.

The hotel plans were drawn by Myron Hunt of Los Angeles, who is architect for D. M. Linnard, best known of California's hotel men, and the plans are in accordance with the detail plans of Linnard's hotels in the arrangement of rooms.

Hunt has been instructed by the trustees of the hotel fund to proceed at once with the preparation of detailed plans and specifications so that bids can be received. The plan of the trustees is to secure bids as quickly as possible and to let a contract, so that building can commence.

Grounds Are Enlarged

The hotel grounds have been enlarged by the purchase of a lot 50 by 125 feet, facing on Birch street and adjoining the Bailey property at the north. This lot does not run through to Broadway. The hotel is to occupy the property bought from Mrs. J. G. Bailey by the hotel trustees some months ago, and the lot on Birch is in addition to the original site.

Under the plans as adopted, the old Bailey residence will be removed, and the hotel is to be so placed that practically all of the trees and shrubbery now on the place will remain. The standard of the T will be built close to the north line of the Bailey property, leaving plenty of ground room to the south between it and the First Christian church, which occupies the corner of Sixth and Broadway.

The main driveway into the hotel grounds will be from Broadway between two palms now growing there. This driveway will turn back and have the exit on Broadway close to the south line of the property. Sidewalks are to be laid north and south and east and west through the grounds inside the driveway.

Sun Room and Lobby

At the east end of the first floor, facing Broadway, will be a sun room, and back of it the lobby, measuring 44 by 120 feet. The top of the T of the first floor of the building will be occupied by a kitchen at each end. On the south side of the top of the T will be the grill room, and north of it the dining room. Between the two will be a movable partition, so that either grill room or dining room can be enlarged or shortened, or thrown into one big room measuring 44 by 125 feet.

The second and third floors will be devoted to rooms for guests. A feature on each floor will be eight rooms with sleeping porches. In every suite will be a bath room and in each room a MAJOR SCOTT, Commander of R-34.

Eight Members of Crew at Roosevelt Field Will Return By Ship

LONDON, July 11.—The air ministry announced today that at 8:10 a. m. New York time, the British dirigible R-34 wireless her position as 46 north latitude and 39.50 west longitude. The position given is about 1500 miles out from Mineola, L. I., and 600 miles east of St. Johns, N. F. The dirigible reported that she had consumed half of her supply of fuel.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Bowling along at 60 knots an hour, the British dirigible R-34 was believed to be more than half way across the Atlantic on her return voyage to Scotland, early today.

The latest report received by the naval radio station here showed the airship more than 1,000 miles out from her starting point, Mineola, L. I., at 11 p. m. Greenwich time (7 p. m. New York time). Her position at that hour was given as 42.16 north latitude and 52.40 west longitude.

"Speeding at 60 knots for blighty," she wirelessed. "All's well."

Just before leaving Roosevelt Field at midnight Wednesday, Major Scott, commander, expressed confidence that the R-34 would make the 3,200 miles in 70 hours. If her present speed is maintained she will accomplish the trip in nearer sixty. She is taking the "southern route" with the prevailing winds directly at her back.

Eight members of the crew, left behind at Roosevelt Field, to make room for 450 gallons of additional fuel, will return to Scotland by steamer with the detachment which assisted American officers and men in preparing for the R-34's landing here.

NEW NOW HOPES FOR ACQUITTAL IN KILLING

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—The case of Harry S. New, who brought the body of Frieda Lesser, his sweetheart, to the city jail saying he had murdered her, today turned from the uncertain road of development, into the straight highway which New hopes will lead to his acquittal.

The visit of his mother, Mrs. Lulu Burger, to New in his county jail cell late yesterday, marked the turning point. New, himself, changed his attitude of "don't care" for one bordering optimism.

Mrs. Burger, after an hour with her son, declared she found his mind a blank on many incidents of his boyhood which previously had been perfectly clear to him.

"He was insane on the night that Frieda Lesser died," the mother steadfastly declared.

Mrs. Burger refused to answer any questions regarding United States Senator New, whom her accused son claims as a father.

In the meantime the condition of Mrs. Alice Lesser, mother of the slain girl, is growing gradually more serious. Telegrams have been sent to her relatives in Birmingham, Ala., her former home, apprising them of Mrs. Lesser's condition.

MEXICAN AMBASSADOR ENROUTE TO CAPITAL

LAREDO, Tex., July 11.—Carrying personal messages from President Carranza of Mexico to President Wilson, Ignacio Bonillas, Mexican ambassador to the United States, accompanied by his staff and Baron Otori, Japanese minister to Mexico, was en route to Washington today.

The party left here last night after spending some time in Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, in conference with Mexican officials there.

Bonillas refused to make any statement for publication here, but it was said in Mexican circles his conferences with Carranza in Mexico City were largely over relations between the United States and Mexico and it is believed Bonillas will have important statements to make to President Wilson.

NOTE TO CLEMENCEAU

BERLIN, July 10.—Reports received here today from Versailles said the German peace delegation had handed a note to Premier Clemenceau asking that German withdrawal from the territory ceded to Poland be as gradual as possible.

FOR FOOD PROFITEERS

PARIS, July 11.—Capital punishment for food speculators was provided in a bill introduced in the French chamber of deputies today.

QUIET CONTINUES IN SHIPYARD OPERATION

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Quiet continued today to mark the resumption of operations at the yards of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Company which have been tied up seven weeks by a strike of 6,000 shipbuilders.

Observers at the yards said that a "few more men" went to work today than did yesterday. Estimates were that not over 500 were working today.

Yesterday the union said 150 returned to work and the company claimed 300.

Union representatives are stationed near the yards keeping account of men who return to work, it was stated, but are taking care not to violate the injunction issued against picketing.

PHELAN REPORTS JAPS BROUGHT OVER BORDER

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Charges that thousands of Japanese are being smuggled into the United States despite the American-Japanese agreement were made today by Senator Phelan of California.

This smuggling explains the fact that the Japanese population in Southern California has doubled in the last three years, Phelan said.

"When I was in Los Angeles recently eighty Japanese who attempted to enter this country by being smuggled across the Mexican border and were apprehended, were being deported," Phelan said. "For every eighty caught, two or three hundred come in."

TRADE WITH GERMANY TO BE RESUMED SOON

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Trade relations with Germany will be resumed at once, Acting Secretary of State Polk announced today.

Formal announcement will be made to the world within 48 hours, Polk said.

SENATOR PAYS $1.50 FOR FUNERAL DELAY

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 11.—It costs $1.50 to delay a funeral in San Francisco, Senator Haskell, testifying before a legislative probe committee, said he was taxed that sum when he failed to return a rented suit of dress clothes to an undertaker on time. He held up a funeral.

SANTA ANAN AT ARCADIA NABBED FOR GUN BATTLE

William Crissman Captured After Deputy Sheriff Is Wounded While Looking For Stolen Car; Get Pal.

ARCADIA, July 11.—Stanley Bender, a soldier at Ross field Arcadia, was arrested while he was entering Ross field early today charged with shooting Deputy Sheriff Modie during a gun fight last night at Bairdstown.

His arrest follows the capture of William Crissman, also of Ross field, who gave the address of 617 South Birch street, Santa Ana.

Three deputy sheriffs were watching for a stolen automobile near Bairdstown last night when the car came into sight with two soldiers as passengers.

Three deputy sheriffs gave chase and several shots were exchanged, one striking Deputy Modie on the right arm. The men in the automobile escaped.

Later Crissman was arrested near where the automobile was last seen. He told the officers Bender was his companion and claimed Bender had fired the shot which hit Modie.

Crissman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crissman of 617 South Birch street. He is but 14 years of age, but is large for his age and succeeded in enlisting in the balloon school at Arcadia.

He left home two or three months ago and when his relatives next heard from him he had enlisted.

ASKED ABOUT DELAY IN ARMY FOOD SALE

WASHINGTON, July 11.—General March, chief of staff, was called today by the special house committee investigating army food supplies. He was to be asked to explain the six months' delay in marketing vast stores of army food after it became evident the army could not use it.

Secretary Baker was called by the committee on camps and cantonments to tell why the war department wants to move the school of fire from Fort Sill, Okla., to Camp Benning, Ga.

GREEN EYES UNDOING OF MEXICAN OFFICER

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Green eyes proved the undoing of Carlos C. Garcia, former lieutenant colonel in Carranza's army, who is under arrest here today, charged with absconding with $60,000 in Mexican government funds. The green eyes are Garcia's own and this unusual shade of optics in the features of a Mexican caused detectives to recognize him as he was engaged in depositing $28,000 in a bank.

Garcia is alleged to have fled from Hermosillo June 30 with the government's cash. After his arrest, he signed a confession, police say, in which he declared a Nogales, Sonora, friend tempted him to take the money, entrusted to Garcia as superintendent of money transportation.

POLK WILL REPLACE LANSING AT PARIS

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Acting Secretary of State Polk will sail for France July 21 to take Secretary of State Lansing's place at the Paris peace conference. Lansing sailed from Brest today.

Polk expects to see Lansing in New York for one day before sailing, probably on the Imperator.

6 WORDS OF WILSON ARE SEIZED FOR LEAGUE WAR

Opponents Argue Utterance Means U. S. Commits Self To Give Up Independence If Such Deemed Necessary

By L. C. MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Senators opposing the league of nations today seized on six words from President Wilson's speech to the senate as proof of their contention that ratification of the league will rob the United States of its independence of action.

The six words are "at whatever cost of independent action."

The president used them in declaring that the world demanded a new order of international politics, founded on freedom and justice. He then added that it was in the league of nations that mankind found its only hope of this new order.

Thus, the President, anti-leaguers argued today, demands that the United States commit itself to giving up its independence to whatever extent the league may deem necessary.

"This statement, taken with the President's assertion that the United States is legally bound to accept the advice of the league council, proves absolutely what the proponents of the league have denied," said Senator Borah.

Difference in Views

"They have insisted that we will be under no legal obligation to act on the league's advice unless we feel honor compels us to. But the President clearly views the situation differently."

Opposition senators were actively preparing today to carry the fight to Wilson from a new angle. While they have previously centered their opposition on article 16 of the league covenant, they are now preparing to make the Shantung question the first test of strength.

The first step in this direction was the Borah resolution requesting the President to furnish information regarding the reported protest of Lansing, Bliss and White, the other three members of the American peace delegation, against giving Japan control of Shantung.

The President's opponents believe, they said today, that they can muster their maximum strength on an amendment to the treaty eliminating or altering the Shantung provision. Before this can be done, Lansing and perhaps President Wilson will be asked to give the Foreign Relations committee not only verbal explanations of the means by which the arrangements were arrived at, but the peace conference day-by-day records in the case.

Consider Treaty Monday

Formal consideration of the peace treaty will begin Monday by the Foreign Relations committee, Senator Lodge announced today. Senate debate on it probably will be resumed at that time.

President Wilson's expression of willingness to appear before the Senate Foreign Relations committee at any time to be questioned concerning the treaty and the league was pointed to by those favoring ratification as evidence of his confidence that the document cannot be successfully attacked. The President, it was said, was quite ready to discuss the provisions with his opponents whenever they are ready to meet him. Administration senators said they were sure that after much verbal battling on the floor, the treaty and league would win when it came to a vote. They considered the President, in his speech of yesterday, withheld most of his strong arguments for use later in the campaign after the opposition has revealed its own line of assault.

Uncle Sam's Boy Officer is Terror To Moonshiners

H. MAYO SHUGART

Youth In Numerous Fights, Kills Lawbreaker In Running Battle

RICHMOND, Va., July 10.—Although he is little more than a boy, H. Mayo Shugart, 21 years old, is a terror to moonshiners. He is Uncle Sam's youngest revenue officer and has been in the service since he was 18.

He has been in many moonshine raids and in more than one gun fight with the lawbreakers. One of his most recent exploits occurred near Norton, Va., when he and others were after a gang of whisky makers in the heart of the moonshine district.

They caught sight of their quarry and a running battle followed. During the shooting, one moonshiner was killed by a bullet from the gun of Shugart.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Appeal to the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers to call a nation-wide telephone workers' strike and send a new appeal to President Wilson to act in the deadlock were dispatched east today. These are the newest developments in the telephone strike, which for three weeks has paralyzed telephone communication on the Pacific coast. The California Federation of Labor sent the appeal to Wilson. The telegram urged him to "direct the postmaster general to recognize the right of thousands of girl telephone operators to a living wage and their right to collective bargaining without discrimination."

WASHINGTON, July 11.—More bonds probably will have to be sold by the government to make up for the loss of revenue due to prohibition, Representative Moore of Pennsylvania declared in the House today. "The government less during the next fiscal year will be $1,000,000,000, figuring the taxes on liquor and income taxes from its sale," he said. "The loss in revenue taxes alone will be $638,000,000 and the taxes for the first ten months of the last fiscal year with war restrictions were $533,636,000."

IRISH THROG HISSES WILSON, HAIG, ENGLAND

NEW YORK, July 11.—Fifteen thousand Irish men and women in Madison Square Garden last night hissed President Wilson, England, Sir Douglas Haig and others, and cheered the Irish republic and "President" De Valera. The demonstration was echoed by an overflow crowd of 10,000. The meeting was a greeting to De Valera, who sat on the platform. Resolutions were passed demanding that the United States recognize the Irish republic.

TRADE BODY SUGGESTS CONGRESS ACTION

"Big Five" Will Soon Hold Nation Food Control Wilson Told

FEDERAL COMMISSION FILES PROBE REPORT

Declares Dominance Near Over Canned Goods, Coal, Lumber and Brick

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The "big five" meat packers will soon exercise a powerful domination over the nation's food supply and international control of meat products unless congress takes immediate steps to forestall these aims, the federal trade commission today reported to President Wilson.

"An approaching packer domination of all important foods in this country and an international control of meat products with foreign companies seems a certainty, unless fundamental action is taken to prevent it," says the report, which is part one of the commission's investigation of the meat industry.

"A fair consideration of the course the five packers—Armour, Morris, Swift, Wilson and Cudahy—have followed and the position they have already reached must lead to the conclusion that they threaten the freedom of the market of the country's food industries and of the by-products industries linked therewith."

The commission claims the packers are fast obtaining their domination by manufacturing or dealing in 775 commodities, largely products, and by gaining control of 762 other companies, many of which are public utility corporations.

"The 'big five' jointly or separately wield a controlling interest in 574 companies, a minority interest in 95 others and an undetermined interest in 93," the report said.

"The history of the packers' growth is interwoven with illegal combinations, rebates and with undisclosed control of corporations. The commission urges full publicity of corporate ownership of all industries."

"As for devices for secret control, there does not exist adequate law. In its absence, unfair competition may run its course to the goal of monopoly and ruin of competitors, without the secret ownership being suspected."

The commission's report points out the following alleged details of the packers' activities:

The "big five" have control of, or interest in, public utility corporations in Sioux City, Kansas City, St. Paul, Portland, Oregon; San Francisco, Fort Worth, Chicago, St. Joseph, Mo., and Hill City, Minn.

During 1917 they produced 44 percent of the country's total output of sheep and lamb stock; 17 percent of the glove stock; nine percent of harness leather; 21 percent of belting and 22 percent of sole leather. On July 31, 1917, the "big five" held almost 90 percent of the country's entire hide stock.

Fifth of Fertilizer

They produce one-fifth of the country's mixed fertilizer supply; one-tenth of the acid phosphate supply; one-third of the cotton seed oil supply; nearly one-half of the lard compounds and lard substitutes; four tenths of the oleomargarine supply and three-tenths of the cotton seed oil soap.

In the meat industry, the commission stated, the "big five" already constitutes a monopoly. In 1916 they slaughtered 82.2 percent of all cattle, 86.4 percent of all sheep; 76.6 percent of all calves and 61.2 percent of all swine. Stockyards controlled by the "big

Their average monthly holdings of non-perishable meats, as compared with the country's total supply, were: Frozen beef, 95 percent; smoked ham and bacon 64 percent; dry salt pork 69.8 percent; pickled pork 70.5 percent.

The packers handle half the poultry, eggs and cheese business of the country. In 1915 they sold 90,000,000 pounds of butter; 75,000,000 pounds of cheese, over 135,000,000 dozen eggs and 100,000,000 pounds of poultry.

Branch House Growth.

The "big five" own 90 percent of all the refrigerator cars in the country. From two branch houses in 1884 they now have 1,120 branch houses. They control 54.7 percent of frozen and chilled beef exports from Argentina and Uruguay.

Other commodities the commission charges packers are gaining control of are breakfast foods, chicken feed, stock feed, fruit, canned vegetables, coal, fence posts, builders' hardware, binding twine, lumber, cement, lime, plaster, brick, gravel roofing, soda fountain supplies and rice.

"J. Ogden Armour," the report said, "besides being a great financial power, is also a prominent factor in the American International Corporation, with its shipping and shipbuilding interests; its import and export companies; its interest in a company organized to develop cattle raising and meat packing in South America, its control of a large tea importing company and a sugar machinery corporation, and its minority stock in the United Fruit Company."

The report also pointed out that the Armour Grain Company has 25 percent of the elevator capacity of Chicago and Kansas City, two of the largest grain markets, and operated over 90 country elevators.

Swift Denies Agreements Between Packing Concerns

CHICAGO, July 11.—Commenting on the report of the federal trade commission to President Wilson that the "five big packers" will soon exercise a powerful domination over the nation's meat supply, Louis F. Swift, president of Swift and Company, said:

"This last report is merely an attack on large and successful business organizations and should be resented by all Americans who are proud of the industrial progress of the nation."

"It contains nothing new. There is no evidence of collusion among the five largest packing houses and I say for Swift and Company, as I have said many times, that we have no agreement of any kind with any other packer to affect prices of livestock or meats."

RANCH AND APIARY ARE SWEEPED BY FIRE

Whipped by a high wind, the fire which started in Temescal canyon at noon Wednesday from an unguarded camp fire, burned over four square miles of watershed, destroying the entire worldly possessions of a man named Castro, burned fifty stands of bees belonging to C. J. Compton and was not brought under control until 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

The fire started on Temescal road at the west end of Lee Lake. From the lake the flames spread quickly across the road and into Horse Thief Canyon and before exhausted, swept four square miles of all trees and undergrowth.

So swiftly did the fire progress and so intense the heat that the householders in the district carried their possessions out into the fruit orchards where they would be more quickly moved in case the flames came nearer.

The camper, whose unguarded fire was responsible for the destructive visitation, disappeared shortly after the fire began to spread. The officers, however, have a pretty definite clue as to his whereabouts and hope soon to arrest him. His offense is a serious one, and Uncle Sam is seeing to it that persons who are careless with camp fires suffer for their misdeeds. Forest Ranger Stephenson of El Toro has joined the Riverside fire warden and Forest Ranger Rutherford in an investigation.

In carrying his plans, the architect seemed to sense the idea of making the place homelike and comfortable, just the kind of a place to appeal to passing automobilists as well as to easterners seeking a place where they might stay and enjoy repose and California's climate.

The structure is not to be ornate nor "loud" in its appearance. Rather, it is to be built in plain lines, white with green blinds, restful and inviting.

The architect's perspectives of the proposed hotel have been placed in the show window at the entrance of W. A. Huff Company's store on Fourth street.

While the trustees of the hotel have not officially adopted a name for the hotel, the architect has designated his plans as plans for St. Anne's Inn.

Capital Idea, Says Girl, of 'Bachelor Girls' Hall' Plan

Success is in sight for the "Bachelor Girls' Hall" plan, conceived by two young ladies as one method for reducing the high cost of living, and announced in the Register on Wednesday. Much interest has been manifested in the plan, and those behind the idea are now confident that it will be carried out.

Girls interested are asked to send a letter to post office box F, Santa Ana, and these letters of application for admission to the club will be considered by the young ladies in charge.

One girl, who says her board and room are costing not less than $40 a month, writes: "I, too, am lamenting the H. C. of L. I think the idea of the 'Bachelor Girls' Hall' a capital one, and should be easily carried out."

He received an appeal for troops from the county judge at Long View.

LONG VIEW, Texas, July 11.—Four white men were wounded in a gun battle between negroes and whites here early today.

The shooting occurred when fifteen armed white men approached the home of L. Jones, negro school teacher, Jones was beaten by whites yesterday for publication of an article in which he related details of the alleged lynching of a negro here June 17th.

Whites deny that such a lynching took place.

FIRST BELIEVED "PEACE PIPE"

Prohibition May Cause Old English Custom to Be Adopted In U. S.

LONDON, July 11.—An old British custom in some circles bids fair to reach America now that the prohibition law is in effect. It is one that is supposed to steady the nerves of couples about to participate in weddings.

Time was when many couples, and particularly the grooms-to-be, steadied their nerves with a "little nip" of something stronger than tea. Now that the ban has been placed on such beverages something else likely will be substituted.

Some of the returned soldiers have learned of a substitute. It is a smoke. Recently when Captain G. C. Martin and Miss Barbara Judd were wed, each took a little smoke before the ceremony. Some of the soldiers at the wedding who saw the preparation, thought the couple were "smoking the pipe of peace." Later they learned that the couple were only taking a "drag" to steady their nerves.

BEAR TRIES TO GET IN HOUSE BY WINDOW

OKIAH, Ore., July 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Tracey Baker, who live on Desolation, had a thrilling experience one night recently when a bear attempted to break into their house. During the night Mr. and Mrs. Baker were awakened by a noise on the back porch, the noise being of something tearing at a window screen. Arising and investigating, the man of the house discovered bruins in the act of trying to gain entrance to the kitchen. Mr. Baker took a shot at the bear, but failed to kill him though he wounded the animal.

TO HOLD AN ELECTION UNDER THE NEW LAW

Riverside will probably be the first city in California to hold an election under the new election laws passed at the last session of the California legislature. The law goes into effect July 22.

Most interesting of the changes is the clause which permits election tally clerks to record the votes in an indelible pencil. In the past, only a pen and ink has been permissible, and much speed has been lost. Now that pencils may be used great haste is to be expected.

The form of the ballots is changed, too, in that instead of being bound on the top, they are bound on the left. No numbering or endorsing on the back is permitted, and the columns are reduced from four to three inches in width.

FINDS BAG OF COINS

FREMONT, O., July 11.—While John Held, a former Fremont saloon-keeper, was cleaning up his business room preparatory to vacating, he found a bag, weighing about four pounds, filled with money. Opening the sack, he found all kinds of change, mostly pennies. The money was kept on hand years ago to help in making change for patrons. The money had been placed in a liquor case and forgotten. The sack was dusty and covered with cobwebs.

NICK CARTER'S BACK AGAIN IN POPULARITY

Many Old Favorites of Years Gone By Are Enjoying a New Call

"Nick Carter" has come into his own again. The king of the "paperbacks" has made a record-breaking return to popularity. About eighteen months ago his sales began to mount steadily until the entire supply of "Nick Carter" books was exhausted. His return to fame was unexpected. It was not the result of an advertising campaign, for the publishers of the paper-bound books do not advertise. They depend instead for the sale of their books on the lists printed in the back pages of each volume.

And "Nick Carter" was not the only member of the "paperback" tribe to return. All the old favorites—Laura Jean Libby, Bertha M. Clay, Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth and Augusta J. Evans—have "come back" surprisingly.

Five years ago everyone was willing to predict that the movies had killed the production of cheap books. Thrills could be absorbed more quickly from the screen than from the printed page—and the price was the same.

Publishers of the paper books are uncertain whether their old reading public has tired of the motion picture or whether a new class of readers has arisen. Of one thing they are certain, though, the demand for the ten and fifteen-cent book has increased fourfold. If it were not for the increased cost of production these publishers would be reaping the harvest of their lives.

NIECE LEFT FORTUNE FOR NURSING UNCLE

ABERDEEN, Wash., July 11.—Miss Eldridge A. Niro of Yarmouth, Mass., is the richer now by between $50,000 and $75,000, inherited for nursing her uncle, Fred Williams, sixty-four years old, a bachelor. Miss Niro came out from the East a short time ago when Williams learned he had cancer and would likely die. She nursed him faithfully and her reward came in the inheritance. Williams was a recluse and money saver for more than thirty years.

Miss Julia Lathrop, chief of the Children's Bureau, urges stricter school laws to combat child labor, in an address at the reconstruction conference conducted by the National American Woman Suffrage Association. "Of 2,000,000 children under 16 years old gainfully employed, fewer than 300,000 are in occupations controlled by child labor law," said Miss Lathrop. "Three-fourths of the children in the country are employed in agricultural work. Their only legal protection is school attendance laws, many of which are inadequate and poorly enforced."

The Labor Department announces the facilities for handling women's work have been developed in the U. S. Employment Service as rapidly as work for men, and officials of the service estimate that about 22 per cent of all persons engaged in gainful occupations in the United States are women.

The Labor Department announces that nearly all cities in the United States with a population of 100,000 or more, are included in a list of 16,811 cities, towns and villages which have taken part in weighing and measuring tests conducted during the past year by the Children's Bureau.

Miss M. Symons, negotiations officer of British Federation of Women Workers, told representatives of the United Press that 1,000,000 women are idle in England today with no prospects of immediate jobs.

A dispatch from Honolulu states that the legislature of the Territory of Hawaii has refused women of the islands the right to vote.

NEW LAWS HELP PROJECTS FOR IRRIGATION

Governor Signs Number of Important Measures For Development

Strong impetus to the agricultural development of the State and to the increase of food production to meet the demands of the period of readjustment after the war is given in several new laws relating to irrigation, approved by Governor William D. Stephens that will go into effect on July 22.

One of these, Senate Bill 493, by Senator Irwin of Kings county, met with violent opposition, but it was approved after a public hearing, by which the Governor was convinced that it was needed to assure the breaking up of immense tracts of land now owned by a few corporations and their transformation into small holdings by real home-makers. The new law makes it possible to organize an irrigation district by a majority vote of the registered voters living within the boundaries of a proposed district, instead of a two-thirds vote, which was formerly required.

Immense quantities of water are now going to waste in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys, and to build the storage reservoirs and canal systems necessary for their conservation and distribution will require so much money that private capital is not likely to undertake the task. Millions of acres can be made highly productive if proper use is made of this water, but it will be done only by the formation of public districts having the power to raise the money by the issuance of bonds and thus spread the cost of the work over a long period.

Such districts are provided for in what is known as the Wright-Bridgford law, under which, according to the last report of the State Engineer, 44 organizations, comprising 1,793,881 acres, have been formed. The requirement of a two-thirds vote for the organization of such a district, however, has hindered the development of large areas, especially in Merced, Madera and Kern counties, where the ownership of large ranches and various local controversies have prevented the people from getting together to make use of their water resources.

Action Is Started

Since the approval by Governor Stephens of Senate Bill 493 active steps have been taken in these counties to form irrigation districts as soon as the bill goes into effect unless it is held up by referendum as a result of the efforts of certain opponents of the measure, who are seeking thus to delay its operation. The supporters of the bill are urging the people not to sign any referendum petition against this measure on the ground that it was passed by both houses of the legislature and signed by the Governor after three public hearings, at which its merits were thoroughly considered. Its opponents have no hope of defeating it before the people, but merely hope to prevent the contemplated development under its provisions until after the general election in 1920.

A measure of great importance to many parts of the State is Assembly Bill 168, by Miss Broughton of Stanislaus county, to allow irrigation districts to develop electric power with water appropriated for irrigation and to distribute such power in any manner advantageous to the districts. The Modesto and Turlock districts in Stanislaus county are about to construct a large reservoir with important power possibilities, and the measure was approved by Governor Stephens after the presentation of arguments in its favor by those districts, but it will allow similar development by any districts having the necessary facilities.

Another bill by Miss Broughton which was approved by Governor Stephens was Assembly Bill 207, allowing irrigation districts to refund bonds issued prior to 1913, thus extending the time for the payment of bonds in certain districts in which development was hindered by litigation and other unfavorable conditions. Two bills by Senator Dennett of Modesto No. 96 and No. 593, approved by Governor Stephens, make important changes in the irrigation district law. No. 96 allows the directors of irrigation districts which operate pumping plants to include in their annual assessments the cost of power or fuel contracted for to operate such plants.

Its Provisions

No. 593 amends 13 sections of the law, the most important changes being as follows: Authorizing districts to enter into partnership agreements with one another or with persons, private corporations or the State or Federal Government; repealing the requirement for a petition of property owners to authorize the purchase of property in excess of certain cost; allowing a new district to include in its first bond issue enough to pay the interest on the bonds for the first three years, provided approval is given by the State Bond Commission; allowing the Board of Directors of a district to call a bond election without a petition of land-owners, but requiring in such case a two-thirds vote to carry the bonds; allowing the Board of Directors in an emergency to let a contract for work without advertising for bids; allowing the voting of assessments to be collected in three annual installments, and reducing the vote required to levy such assessments from two-thirds to a majority.

The Governor also approved Senator Dennett's bill No. 592, allowing the State Bond Commission, in case of a large project constructed in units, to approve portions of a bond issue for such project from time to time as the development progresses and the resulting increase in land values justifies the assumption of additional burdens.

Another measure that met with Governor Stephens' sanction was Assembly Bill 1072 by Mathews of Lassen county, providing for the bringing of an action by the Attorney General to dissolve an irrigation district which has been organized more than three years and has failed to make reasonable progress toward providing an irrigation system, of which has been organized more than ten years and has failed for more than five years to supply water to more than ten per cent of its area.

(United Press Staff Correspondent) Reenacts Old Law.

Another kind of irrigation district is provided for in Senate Bill 699 by Senator Harris of Fresno and approved by the Governor. It reenacts a law known as the California Irrigation Act, first passed in 1915, and continues in office of the State Irrigation Board, composed of three members, who draw no salaries except for time actually spent in organizing and directing districts under the law. This board is now composed of A. J. Chandler, president of the State Water Commission, W. P. Boone and D. W. Ross. An appropriation of $5000, to be used as a revolving fund, was made for its work in 1917, but the money has not been used.

The measure provides for the formation by order of this board, of districts on petition of the owners of a majority in area of the land within a certain territory and the combination of these districts and other units into conservation districts. It is expected that the law will be used in the development of the project to construct an immense reservoir to store the waters of Kings river and use them for irrigation and power development. The law, however, is general in its application and can be used wherever the owners of more than half of a certain area desire to form a district.

PENSIONS FOR 3 HUSBANDS PAID NEGRESS

Uncle Sam has been kind to Mrs. Amanda Smith-Jones-Jackson, a negress, whom fate robbed of three soldier husbands, and is paying her $172.50 per month as endowment payments on $10,000 life insurance policies each of her former husband held.

When Uncle Sam went to war and began the task of organizing the national army the finger of fate directed the hand groping in the big glass bowl in the Senate office building, and there issued therefrom early in the drawing the number of one Jones, husband of Mrs. Amanda Jones, whose present address the war risk bureau is now guarding jealously.

The mills of the gods and the war department ground on Jones reported for duty, was inducted into the service and soon thereafter died of spinal meningitis. But not until he had taken out a $10,000 insurance policy.

Widowed Mrs. Jones soon said "yes" to another soldier by the name of Smith, saw him march away to war, and in time learned through the war department he had died a soldier's death, having been killed in action.

Came then the armistice, the returning victors, the return of normal conditions, and Mrs. Amanda Jones-Smith put aside her grief when Private Jackson asked her to essay a third venture in matrimony. The ceremony was performed and the wife was named as beneficiary in the bridegroom's government policy for $10,000.

A little later influenza succeeded where the Germans had failed and the bride was widowed for the third time in less than two years.

It is announced from the American Legion headquarters at New York that women who served in various war service work are eligible for membership in the American Legion.

According to information reaching this department, the first Woman's Club convention ever held in the Philippine Islands was recently in session in the province of Pangasinan.

New York women have applied to the State Supreme court for articles of incorporation for the "Women's Chamber of Commerce, National and International." The purpose is to encourage women to become capitalists, investors, and proprietors in service victors everywhere.

THE RIGHT DIRECTION

Any county that is developing as fast as Orange county is developing is going to find itself face to face with insistent demands for action. New situations and new conditions must be dealt with. The thing that may not have seemed so important a year or two years ago may today be of paramount interest.

Just now the Board of Supervisors of this county finds itself dealing with the fact that the county ought to have many miles of paved roads in addition to those already paved, and with the fact that there is a strong public sentiment in favor of the development of its recreation resources—and in considering recreation resources paved roads are to be considered as a factor in recreation as well as a general commercial and civic utility.

The proposal of the Board of Supervisors to use its best efforts to increase the mileage of paved roads in Orange county is going to meet with the approval of the people of the county. The plan of forming road districts may or may not work out. There seems to have been no difficulty in getting action upon that plan at Yorba Linda and Villa Park and along Grand avenue and Fairhaven avenue. Recently opposition to the plan has arisen in some quarters, and it is possible that, through the road district plan, the supervisors, during the next year, will be unable to accomplish everything that they hope to accomplish.

However, strength to the arms of the supervisors in their efforts to get more paved roads! There is no reason why Orange county should not be known as, and actually be, the best paved county in California.

This county is decidedly in arrears when we consider the lack of development of its mountain recreation resources. However, some of the things that need to be done are soon to be done. Among them are the paving of the road to the county park, which will be accomplished within the next few months, the adoption of a general plan of improvement for the county park, the establishment of a public camping ground in Trabuco canyon, and the paving by the state of the coast boulevard.

The supervisors and United States Forest officials are working out the Trabuco camping site proposition as rapidly as it is possible to work it out, with the prospect that before next summer a fine recreation spot will be open to the public for outings and the building of cabins.

The disposition of the board toward an energetic and comprehensive plan for the improvement of the county park is to be commended.

The first step toward opening up the upper Santiago canyon to better public usage will be the construction of a road from the Trabuco over the ridge into the Santiago. Most of this road can be built easily. There are a few places that may offer engineering difficulties that will make the cost run up greater than at this time seems likely. However, some kind of a survey should be made in order to determine the possibilities, and the county should definitely set its mind to carrying out the project. The upper Santiago canyon is a paradise, and to most of the people of the county it is as unknown as though it was as far distant as an oasis in the Sahara.

The betterment of recreation opportunities in Orange county is something that should receive prompt attention and early action, and in working out plans for more paved roads and the development of facilities for outings and camping the supervisors surely are moving in the right direction.

STRUGGLE OF CENTURY

With the return of President Wilson and the presentation of the peace treaty for ratification, this nation begins the struggle of the century, between those who would recognize that we are a part of organized humanity and those who would pretend that we can be isolated from it. Nothing comparable to it has happened since the debates that preceded the Civil war.

Three plans are out: (1) To ratify the treaty outright, (2) to ratify it with reservations, and (3) to defeat it outright. Only a small group, in which, however, we are sorry to see the three or four most aggressively progressive senators, are in favor of the third course, of complete rejection, at least of the league covenant.

Most of the Democrats, and some Republicans, are in favor of straight ratification. The majority of the Republicans seem to prefer ratification with reservations, two of which are in the covenant already, and therefore might as well be "reserved," in addition, if it will soothe anybody's feelings. The other is to refuse assent to Section 10 of the covenant, obligating the nations to respect and protect against external aggression each other's political independence and territorial integrity. We think it would be shameful for the United States to shirk this obligation which all other nations are accepting. But perhaps still worse would be for us to discredit the intelligence of democracy by doing this shirking on the absurd arguments now being advanced—that the purpose of this section is to obligate the United States to suppress revolutions in Ireland, Shantung and Korea. Language could not be plainer than that by which this section of the covenant expresses exactly the opposite meaning. If we are to be stampeded by bugaboos, then democracy needs educating.—Fresno Republican.

INFORMATION WANTED

It is perhaps a good thing that the peace treaty, the most important treaty in the world's history, should be presented directly to the people. The people are vitally concerned in all of its provisions, and they are the real judges.

There is one great danger, however, in this public appeal, and that is that people may be led by fiery and catching speech to make false decisions. This has been done in many a campaign on less important issues.

To guard against this, it is most desirable that men of clean views and purpose should be chosen to present arguments for or against the treaty, including the League of Nations, and that audiences should be on their guard against specious, misleading oratory. The man who can not back his statements with clear, concise reasons understandable to the plain people should be driven from the platform.

Every voter should make an earnest effort to inform himself on the League of Nations and subscribe to no argument which is not manifestly free from party or personal prejudice.

What the country wants now is information, not politics, nor oral fireworks.

"This is America!" said President Wilson, as he boarded the George Washington to return home. Which is a reminder that as a result of the new shipping program there will soon be bits of America anchored in every seaport in the world.

It's Prohibiting

Stockton Record

In former years the morning after the Fourth of July found all the drunk cells of the country overcrowded with sorry spectacles of humanity. On the 5th of July, 1919, reports from all the cities of the land show the drunk cells empty or nearly so. Stockton reported "nobody home" in its cell for inebriates and so did Oakland, Sacramento, Fresno and other cities of California.

Four days of prohibition sobered the men who were never known to be sober before when the least opportunity to celebrate presented itself. Forty days from July 1 will find reeling men as rare as snow birds in mid-summer and 40 weeks hence a drunken man will be a real curiosity.

Those who had so much to say to the effect that prohibition will not prohibit, if not already convinced of their error will soon have to admit it if the wetness is not so constitutional that reason has left them. It was not expected even by the most ardent dries that all trace of John Barleycorn would disappear overnight. They know the problems that would confront them after the dry laws went into effect and they know how to meet them. They know that prohibition will serve every purpose it aims to serve, and before January 16, 1920, when the national dry legislation goes into effect, sobriety will be universal and those who shouted loudest for the breweries and whisky houses will wonder why they permitted themselves to be made such dupes of by those who did nothing for them but take their money and frown at their presence when their last cent was gone.

School and Farm

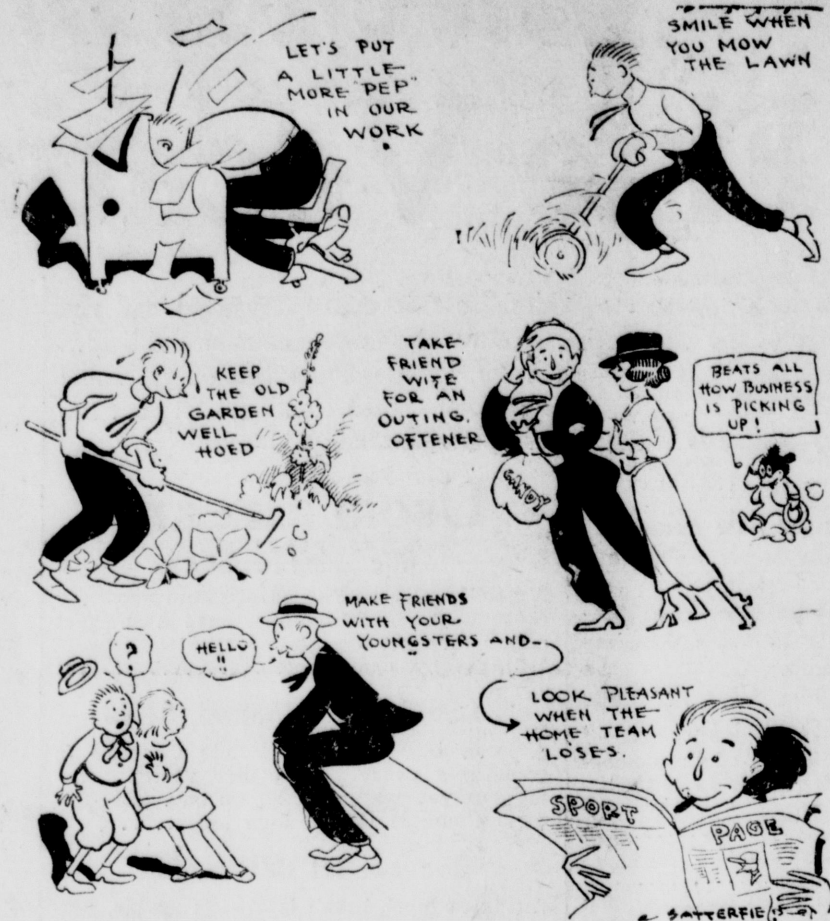

Collier's

It ought to dawn on some of us fairly soon that better education is not simply a matter of finer buildings and apparatus, more pay, more taxes, more organizations. These things are all helpful, but there must be some active spring of life in the child to flow through the growth channels which schooling can set. The teacher builds on the solid foundation of new resources, bigger cattle, more skillfully tended fields, more productive crops. To popularize gardens, to devise better ways of storing, moving and selling food, to multiply public markets, to clear the entire path from the farm to the family supper table—all such improvements help, directly and mightily, to make a more effective education possible. Grown folks can eat themselves stupid, and no doubt there are those to whom the war did not bring enough starvation, but an underfed child is not often teachable. In this time of change we must take account of realities and make sure of our foundations. The foundation of the good school is the good farm.

Who's Got It?

"What is worrying you now?"
"Oh, nothing much," replied the man who is perpetually pensive. "I am merely trying to figure out what has become of all the daylight I saved since we set the clocks forward."—Washington Star.

Worth While Verses

THE DAWN CHILD.

While in a wilderness of woods I lay
My counterpane of stars was drawn away.
And there upon the breast of drowsy earth
I watched the tresses of old Night turn gray.

The eastern hills were rimmed with saffron light,
And on their ridge, in burning robes bedight,
The Dawn-child with his rounded, rosy cheeks
Blew on the embers in the camp of Night.

Down in the valley of the sleeping lake,
Below the mist, I heard a heron wake;
The startled challenge of a sambar stag
Belled from the dripping tangle of the brake.

Then all the jungle cocks awoke and crew,
While still the Dawn-child at his camp-fire blew,
Until the monkeys huddled on the boughs
Hooted and shook upon me showers of dew.

Night moved away before triumphant morn
Decked in the gold his dying sire had worn;
But still the deeper secrets of the wood
Were clothed in shadows from her mantle torn.

The Dawn-child's footsteps on the sky gave birth
To roses where they pressed and from the earth
Sprang dewy scents as blossoms ope their eyes,
And steam from camp-fires, and a song of mirth.
—From "Poems in Captivity" (John Lane Co.)

GROANS AND GRINS

SURE ENOUGH

An Irishman presented himself before a magistrate to seek advice.
"Sor," he said, "I kapes hens in my cellar, but th' wather pipes is bust an' th' hens is all drowned."
"Sorry, I can't do anything for you," said the magistrate; "you had better apply to the water company."

A few days later Pat again appeared.
"Well, what now? What did the water company tell you?" queried the magistrate.
"They told me, you honor," was the reply, "to kape ducks."

MAKING IT UNANIMOUS

"Are you in favor of universal prohibition?"
"Yes," replied Uncle Bill Bottletop. "We've got it sure in our town. An' I'm jes' selfish enough to want it made as hard for everybody on earth to get a drink as it is for me."—Washington Star.

YOUTHFUL ENTERPRISE

After a mission meeting a little boy lingered behind and insisted on seeing the missionary. At length his wish was gratified. "Well, my lad," said the kindly cleric as he patted the boy's head, "do you wish to consecrate your young life to this noble work?" "No, sir," replied the boy; "I wanted to know if you have got any foreign stamps!"

A SLIGHT MISCONCEPTION

J. Ogden Armour, at a recent dinner, spoke in defense of the meat packers. Among other things he said: "Our enemies wilfully misconstrue our statements. They misinterpret our motives and our statements of fact as bad as the little child to whom the Sunday school teacher said, 'Ethel, tell me something about King Solomon.' To which Ethel replied, 'King Solomon was a very rich king and very fond of animals.' 'Why do you think he was fond of animals?' asked the teacher in surprise. 'Well,' said Ethel, 'it says in the Bible that King Solomon had 900 wives and 1000 porcupines.'"—Nebraska State Journal.

OBSERVATIONS

That $55,000,000 appropriation will be enough to finance a high old time for the air service.

Across the water the war tax will be a grievous burden. Here at home it will be an annoyance.

Someone should explain to the Senate that its job is to ratify a treaty, not to ratify a president.

When a man sets up a little shop of his own, he would give almost anything for a 44-hour day.

Munitions plants would go out of business if we could make it as hard to start a war as it was to arrange peace.

For Good Measure

By the Editor

Superior Judge Willis of Los Angeles has a grouse against Santa Ana. In a divorce suit on trial in his court day-before-yesterday he asked the plaintiff where the marriage ceremony was performed. The answer was, "Santa Ana." "Oh," said his Honor with a super-exquisite sense of the proprieties of the judicial office: "Santa Ana marriages always turn out badly. If I grant you a divorce, will you promise me that the next time you are married the ceremony shall not be performed in Santa Ana?"

The required promise was given, and "two souls with but a single thought"—and hardly that—were divorced. The decree probably read: "This decree shall be set aside in case the plaintiff shall ever visit Santa Ana with intent to regain matrimonial infelicities."

The cause of this singular decree was not stated. Was Hizonner overcharged here for the monthly polishing of his shoes? Or was he given here sour milk in his coffee? Or did some disrespectful Santa Ana say to him: "Judge Willis, I had a dream last night. I dreamed I was in love with your Honor, and I recalled those lines which Shakespeare places in the mouth of Titania—'Methought I was enamored of an ass.'"

Just as an illustration of how stories "that ain't so" start and grow, and assume strange and weird forms, here is one that rivals that ancient tale of the man who ate three black crows.

As the story first came to me it was to the effect that Santa Ana's picture show magnate, L. A. Schlesinger, had been robbed of $1000 during a recent trip to San Francisco. Then another version came that Schlesinger had sent a pair of trousers to the cleaner's with $1000 in the hip pocket thereof.

Well, I had the story "run down" and found that the other day the following newspaper paragraph was read aloud in a family circle:

It does not often happen that two men named Schlesinger register at the same hotel on the same day and send their trousseaus, their very best dress pants, to the hotel valet to be pressed. Nor does it often happen that a man may have all of $1000 in his pants pocket on a sunny afternoon in San Francisco or elsewhere. But this is getting ahead of the procession. How'd you feel if you were Schlesinger No. 1 to reach down in your pocket after your pants were returned to find $1000 in bills you didn't know

FIRESTONE records show that mileage adjustments were so few and trouble came so seldom that a new basis of adjustments was arranged:

Fabric Tires, 6000 Miles
Cord Tires, 8000 Miles

Your dealer knows that the Firestone Gray Sidewall Tires have delivered such mileage as to make this new standard adjustment more conservative than the old standard was for ordinary tires

Firestone

Most Miles per Dollar

were there? And if you were the other Schlesinger how would it strike you to be minus $1000 that you knew you had? Two visits to the hotel tailor, an explanation and no harm done. Wrong pants sent to wrong Schlesinger, that's all.

A boy in the family who is a movie fan heard just enough of the reading to catch the point that Schlesinger had lost $1000. The only Schlesinger he knew was L. A., so he told his chum an imaginary story based on what he had heard; the chum repeated the story with variations, and so it came to me. Can you beat it?

I notice that we print an awful lot of dull criticisms in this paper—especially those we ourselves write. So I'm going to print a few in this column which seem to be better even than those we steal. We are stealing these from the Visalia Delta, which doesn't tell from whom it stole them:

Damage suits for alienation of affections demand too much. Affections that can be alienated are not worth anything.

Some Dutchman has said that if you eat sauerkraut twice a day you will live to be 100 years old. We'd sooner die.

Nowadays if a fellow don't agree with his neighbor he is a reactionary and an obstructionist, and lucky if he is not a liar and a porch-climber.

And now another prominent actor has married his fifth wife. When he meets them all on the golden shore what a razzle-dazzle he will get.

We'd do a man a favor, But can't quite understand Why he expects we'd cross the street And put it in his hand.

No country man likes to live in a city flat, where the rooms are so small the dog has to wag his tail up and down instead of sideways.

Buttermilk, cheese, sauerkraut and carrots are said to be sure death to bacilli and microbes. Sounds logical. That ought to kill anything.

Women do not kiss each other as much as they used to, which leaves a larger crop of kisses for the men to harvest. And that field is about the only one where harvest hands are not scarce.

The man who can't see anything in the world except the "Stamp of the Guinea" has cramp of the vision, strabismus of the optic nerve and prolapsus of the soul.

Much Water is Wasted in Bathrooms

In the bathroom—that's where many dollars' worth of water is wasted because of imperfect plumbing.

If an overlarge water bill leads you to believe there is a leak somewhere—look first in the bathroom.

See that all faucets work easily—that they turn off tight—that the washers are in good condition.

Make sure that the toilet plumbing works properly; that the valves and ball cocks are in good condition.

Keep the bathroom plumbing in first class condition—it saves the cost of wasted water.

LIFE IS WORTH LIVING
Is life worth living? In one flower's smile
Is more of sweetness than one heart can hold;
In one fair rainbow hurled across the sky
Is richness beyond diamonds or gold;
In one grand sunset done in gorgeous dyes
Is joy and life and sweet content untold.
Is life worth living? To have known one friend
Whose loyalty is certain as the sun;
Or to have known a single pure love thrill—
Such thrills as come when two souls join in one—
Which of all these is not enough to make
Man say, "I'm glad I live," when life is done?

Forest Home Outing
Mrs. Emma Allen, Jerold Allen, Miss Ida Mitchell and Mrs. Eula Devana are expecting to leave today for Mrs. Allen's cottage at Forest Home for a three or four weeks' outing.

Rev. T. E. Stevenson, with a party of Boy Scouts, had gone up to occupy the cottage for a week's vacation. The minister was called home Tuesday and brought two of the boys back with him. Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Brown of Tustin motored up for the rest of the lads.

On the Fourth of July, Rev. Stevenson and his boys held a track meet at the camp.
Home From Service
Sergeant E. M. Paterson, Fred Mahoney and Doc Lurhing are three more boys home from the service.
They received their discharges at the Presidio about a week ago but Sgt. Paterson remained in Berkeley for a week's visit with his sister, arriving at the home of his brother, A. H. Paterson, Santa Ana, Wednesday. He expects to continue his work with the Union Oil Company, where he was employed before entering the service. Mr. Mahoney is already working and Doc Lurhing, who has charge of the station at Norwalk, will begin Monday.

Dance at Long Beach
Next to Balboa in popularity among the beaches, Long Beach takes its stand among Santa Anans.
On account of the good roads, it scarcely takes any time at all to get over there and then there's a long evening to spend on the pike seeing the various attractions.
A jolly party of Santa Ana people went down recently for an evening of dancing and fun on the pike. They included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Merker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morris, Misses Zoe Vanderlip, Hattie Powers, Irene Craemer, Nora Lykke, Alice Huntington, Arlie Cravath and Messrs. Leslie Mitchell, Dr. W. C. Du Bois, Claude Sleeper, Ted Paterson and Andrew Lykke.

To Canadian Rockies
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rankin left Tuesday evening on one of the most beautiful trips taken by summer vacationists this year.
They are going by way of Portland, Tacoma, Seattle and Vancouver, bound for the mountain resort at Banff, Canada, on the other side of the Canadian mountains. They will return through the Rockies to Lake Louise, in the very heart of the mountains, and will come home by way of Spokane, Portland and San Francisco. Planning to remain several days at each place, they will arrive home about the tenth of August.

Ice cream and cake were served for refreshments so that the babies could have their share, and Master Vern, with a little assistance, blew out the candle on his birthday cake.

All his small friends left wishing him many more of such happy birthdays to come. The babies with their mothers, who helped to celebrate the occasion, were Nadene Boggs, Hilda Rosemeyer, Nadene Stice, Lovine Parks, Marion Baxter, Doris Peale, Eugene Boggs, David Bates, LeRoy Stice, also Mrs. S. Installation Held

The installation ceremonies of Teresa Rebekah officers conducted by the new district deputy and her staff selected from Sycamore lodge, Wednesday evening, were exceptionally attractive and impressive.

Mrs. George E. Peters, who is the District President of this district, features in the ceremony, making it most interesting. This is the third lodge where she has conducted installations and during her tour of the district she has been accompanied by the Cantons and installation staff of fourteen members. Of this staff, Mrs. W. W. Chandler holds the responsible office of Grand Marshal.

The elective officers for this year are:

N. G.—Mrs. Ada Walters.
V. G.—Mrs. Maude Swarthout.
Rec. Sec'y.—Mrs. Alice Gould.
Fin. Sec'y.—Mrs. Victoria Adams.
Treasurer.—Mrs. Frankie Johnson.
The officers appointed by the Noble Grand include:
Chaplain—Mrs. Fannie Lacy.
Warden—Miss Gail Jarrette.
Conductor—Miss Beatrice Schnee.
Inner Guard—Mrs. Mary Ford.
Outside Guard—Mrs. Belle Buck.
Musician—Mrs. Leota Allen.
Bouquets of all the lovely spring flowers were showered upon the officers by the lodge and individual friends. Visitors from all the surrounding cities and even from San Diego were present and speeches by both brothers and sisters of visiting lodges were given.

The new Noble Grand, Mrs. Walters, has already shown her ability and capability as a leader, as printed programs of the work to be completed in the next six months have already been distributed. She has many new ideas to inject into the lodge and the enthusiasm everyone seems to feel gives promise of making this a most successful term.

One of the features of the Rebekah work here has been for the benefit of the orphan's home, but this year there is a double incentive, as plans for the erection of a new orphanage to cost from seventy-five to one hundred thousand dollars are being discussed. Plans for that, of course, are receiving much attention.
The banquet room was filled with enthusiastic members of the local lodge and visiting members, where delightful, cooling refreshments were served them.

See Beautiful Yosemite
Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Andrews and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Andrews and Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Cook and family returned last evening from a ten days' trip to Yosemite, returning by way of San Francisco and the coast.

Interest in School
About sixty children have enrolled in the Daily Vacation Bible School at the First Baptist church. Misses Mabel Haves, Irene Catland and Mary Addie Jones are the teachers, and under their supervision the children have become much interested.
The attendance is very good, and the children enjoy their handwork and sloyd. The girls are making doll dresses and the boys are planning to knot a hammock large enough for actual use.

Busy Bee Club
The Busy Bee Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Greer on East Third street.

Sweet peas, hydrangeas, dahlias and other summer flowers were used by the hostess in decorating her home, where her guests were entertained with music and games.

Mrs. Will Lindsey received a dainty cake as a reward for guessing correctly a contest concerning the different names of cakes. Another guessing game was very amusing as Mrs. Greer had secretly collected pictures of the guests when they were babies.

Mrs. Charles Johnson sang two very sweet songs, and duets were given by Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Will Lindsey. Mrs. Greer gave a piano solo.

The younger people at the party had their share in the program, too, and little Helen and Ralph Greer, Evelyn Sherrill and Avery Johnson pleased their audience with fairy stories and songs.

Trays prettily decorated with sweet-peas carried refreshments for the guests, and while they were being enjoyed, Mr. Greer gave several readings.

Those present beside the hostess were Meses C. S. Hubbard, J. P. Thompson, R. K. Torrens, A. M. Pendleton, Chas. Johnson, Jack Miller, Tom Sherrill, Clarence White, Elmer Thompson, William Jerome, Earl Smith and Will Lindsey. The guests of the club were Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Holingsworth, Helen Greer, Ralph Greer, Evelyn Sherrill and Avery Johnson.

Election of Officers

The election of officers was held last night at the regular meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood.
Floyd Turner was elected president; Mrs. Neva Sutton, vice-president; Helene Galbraith, secretary; Mrs. Hannah Huntington, chaplain; Harry Brookbank, sergeant; Mrs. Myrtle Ballard, Mistress of Arms; Mrs. Elizabeth Marsiles, Inner Doorkeeper; Fred Marsiles, Outer Doorkeeper; Harry Brookbank and Myrtle Ballard, finance committee; Mrs. Daisy Turner, musician, and L. F. Harvey and J. A. Hankey, trustees. Light refreshments were served and dancing closed the evening's entertainment.

Several members are planning to attend the installation of officers to be held Monday evening in Los Angeles at the Victory lodge.

If heavy cream is whipped too long, it will granulate.

To polish silverware rub it with whitening on chamois.

Dull files are sharpened when laid in diluted sulphuric acid.

Ice cream is best made with cream two or three days old.

Salt curdles new milk if added before cooking the milk.

A bit of wax paper may be all that is needed to make what proves to be a messy lunchbox into an appetizing one.

100 GOVERNMENT STEAM LAUNDRY SHIPS TIED UP BY STRIKE BUYS SACKMAN PROPERTY

All Atlantic Coast Boats May Have to Remain at Their Ports

Local Company Preparing For Enlarging Plant to Take Care Business

NEW YORK, July 11.—More than 100 government ships were tied up in New York harbor today when union firemen, water tenders and oilers went on strike, it was stated by officers of the United States Shipping Board.

Reports from private steamship lines indicated that every vessel on the Atlantic and Gulf seaboard may have to remain in port through this strike unless adjustments are made in Washington today at a conference between union officials and the shipping board.

The men are striking for a $15.00 monthly increase in wages and adjustments prohibiting employment of oriental labor.

Officials of the Marine Engineers-Beneficial Association declared the engineers will not sail unless their demands are also met.

The strike was called yesterday, but at that time the only steamer unable to leave its pier was the Savannah, of the Savannah line. Today the strike was reported to have reached almost general proportions.

The following statement was issued by the American Steamship Association, representing seventy steamship lines affected by the threatened tieup.

"The ship owners' representatives have contended that the United States could not hope to maintain the mercantile marine it has secured since the outbreak of the war in competition with the ships of other nations if the costs of operation were to be increased. Nevertheless, they would be willing to agree to a flat 10 per cent increase in wages of all licensed marine engineers, but could not agree to the proposition of having the wages of the captain and the chief engineer alike."

WANTS BIT OF MONEY, DIGS GOLD IN YARD

SAN ANDREAS, Cal., July 11.—When Jack Masterson finds the high cost of living bothering him, all he needs do is migrate to the back yard with his spade and pan and dig up as much small change as the occasion demands.

A few days back he "panned" $17 in one nugget. The day previous he washed out a pan netting him $2. His home is on the Valley Springs road. His ground is evidently a piece overlooked by the early miners who have taken most of the gold from this vicinity.

Our July Clearance Sale is still continuing. Remarkable reductions in trimmed hats. O'Donnell, Millinery, corner Fourth and Birch.

Preparations for future expanding of its business is indicated by the purchase by the Santa Ana Steam Laundry of the fifty-foot lot on North Broadway, immediately south of the laundry. The deal was closed yesterday. The property was bought from Wm. Sackman. It is 50x125, and its addition gives the laundry company 150 feet of Broadway and 175 on Fifth, the company owning a lot at the rear of the Sackman lot and facing on Fifth street.

Enlargement of the laundry plant is among the probabilities of the near future. Its business has developed to proportions where the present quarters are too crowded to handle the volume economically and with dispatch.

Geo. W. Minter, of the company, stated today that enlargement would not be attempted at once, but that it was only a matter of a short time when additional room would have to be provided.

CATHOLIC SCHOOL TO HAVE NEW BRANCH

Rev. Fr. Henry Eummele, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church, is having estimates made for altering the parochial school building to admit of a new commercial high school course for girls in the institution.

The new department will be placed upstairs and another stairway will be built to accommodate the commercial students.

The parochial school here has been a decided success. The Sisters, who have been teaching here, are now attending summer school. It is not yet known whether the same instructors here last year will return in September.

Through donations of bonds to the church, it is hoped to raise the entire debt on the church and school, the people in the parish having responded well to the pastor's plea for funds. Already the debt on the school grounds has been paid.

OLIVE MILLING CO. IN ANNUAL MEETING

ORANGE, July 11.—Seventy-five per cent of the stock was represented at the annual meeting of the Olive Milling Company. Reports showed the company to be in a flourishing financial condition. With conditions gradually returning to normal, prospects are very promising. The company was organized in 1887 and has been paying dividends regularly since 1916.

Officers were re-elected as follows: D. C. Pixley, president, R. J. Bice, vice president; F. A. Blake, secretary; National Bank of Orange, treasurer.

CHAPLIN BABY DIES AFTER 72-HOUR LIFE

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—While thousands laughed at Charlie Chaplin's antics on the movie screen today, the king of mirth was bitterly mourning the death of his first born son—the babe born to Chaplin and his wife, pretty Mildred Harris Chaplin. Death came to the child which was hailed as the heir to filmdom's throne of laughter, seventy-two hours after birth.

Chaplin had been told by physicians the child could not live and for the last 48 hours of the babe's life, the famous comedian never left the nursery. The mother was kept in ignorance of approaching death, until last night.

Common tea in the cup has very little tea-flavor, and a lot of tannin. Fine tea has a lot of tea-flavor, and almost no tannin.

When you use common tea, you can't get enough tea-flavor before the tannin comes along and smothers it, unless you use altogether too much tea.

With fine tea it's just the other way. There's a lot of tea-flavor—you get all you want from a very small quantity before the tannin begins to draw.

That's why fine tea, like Schilling Tea, is more economical than common tea.

There are four flavors of Schilling Tea—Japan, Ceylon-India, Oolong, English Breakfast. All one quality. In parchment-lined moisture-proof packages. At grocers everywhere.

GUARDSMEN ARE NOW FEDERAL TROOPS

Members of Santa Ana Company Now Drawing Pay For Attendance at Drills

The National Guard organization of California has been officially recognized by the Federal government, and the Seventeenth company of Santa Ana received Federal recognition on June 28, according to information from Adjutant General Borree to A. E. Koepsel, captain commanding the Santa Ana company.

This despite the failure of a bill passed by the late legislature to get the signature of the governor, and which was designed to aid in placing the National Guard under Federal control. The recognition order means that the guardsmen are now receiving one-fourth of the regular army pay for attendance at drills, and this compensation, it is estimated, amounts to nearly two dollars for each weekly drill which the men attend.

With this recognition secured, government arms and equipment on the way, and a live program of social and athletic events arranged, a very successful period of activity for the Santa Ana guard company, now in the Birch street armory, is assured.

AMBASSADOR ISHII QUILTS PUBLIC LIFE

TOKIO, July 3. (Delayed.)—Resignation of Viscount Kikujiro Ishii, as Japanese ambassador to the United States and his retirement from public life was officially announced by the government today. This was simultaneous with Ishii's arrival from the United States.

"Ill health" was the sole reason ascribed in the announcement. The successor to Ishii has not been decided upon as yet.

Viscount Ishii's intention to resign was made known from Japan in May, when the diplomat announced his purpose of visiting Japan. Foreign Minister Uchida and Baron Makino, member of the peace commission, have been mentioned as his successor in Washington.

Viscount Ishii served in diplomatic work in France and China, returning to Japan in 1900 to become associated with the home government. In 1904 Ishii investigated anti-Japanese troubles at San Francisco and Vancouver, B. C., for Japan. In 1915 he was recalled as ambassador to France to become foreign minister. He left this post to become American ambassador, after formulating with Secretary of State Lansing the "gentlemen's agreement" between the United States and Japan, whereby Japan agreed to a number of immigration restrictions.

Liechtenstein Is Still At War With Germany; Could Not Sign Pact

BERNE, July 7.—Any arrangements the German delegates made with the Allies at Versailles don't cut any ice with Liechtenstein. Liechtenstein never participated in the Paris conference, so a state of war still exists between her and Germany. Yet it is hard, says the Regent, Prince Charles, for Liechtenstein is the foundation stone of the grand alliance against Germany, having been at war with her aggressive neighbors since 1864.

The diplomats at Paris committed the astonishing oversight, forgetting the existence of the free and independent state of Liechtenstein. Seeing that Siam and the Hedjaz were invited to participate in the peace negotiations, Liechtenstein promptly demanded representation but no notice was taken of the demand.

Liechtenstein has an area of 65 square miles, and in 1912 had a population of 10,716. It lies between Switzerland and German-Austria. The state made war on Prussia in the Schleswig-Holstein squabble, but Prussia arrogantly overlooked the tiny state's interference and never troubled to conclude peace. Since 1911 Austria has paid 47,000 crowns a year for the privilege of running the state postal, telegraph and telephone services, but otherwise the principality has independent, under its own royal family. Liechtenstein has had no army since 1866 and no national debt. But who's going to pay that 47,000 crowns?

NEW COUNTY MEXICAN MISSION ESTABLISHED

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, July 11.—A Mexican mission circuit has just been established, including Wintersburg, Talbert and Huntington Beach, with headquarters at the latter place. Rev. Tirre, an ordained Mexican minister, has been given charge of the circuit and entered on his work the past week with successful meetings at each of his charges.

Forty-five Mexicans were present at the meeting held by him at Wintersburg Sunday evening. Rev. Tirre is a young minister, American born, being a native of Texas, and seems energetic and capable about his chosen work. He will hold a meeting once each week at each of his missions and is also operating with the resident missionary at Westminster in his work at that place.

The missions have been established in connection with the centenary movement, which is starting a chain of Latin-American missions throughout the country.

"EVERYBODY'S DOING IT"

The other day W. T. Thompson of 208 Citizens National Bank Building, Riverside, put a "Hay For Sale" advertisement in the Register for four insertions. After the ad had appeared twice, Mr. Thompson wrote us:

I don't know whether to credit your paper with great advertising ability or to conclude that people are short on hay in your vicinity. Anyway, suffice it to say I wish they would quit calling me on the phone from your town and also coming up to see me, as the hay is all sold through the ad in your paper. You had better tell 'em. I thank you.

Word was received Thursday from Pasadena announcing the death of Mrs. Clough, wife of Rev. Edgar A. Clough who was formerly pastor of the M. E. church of this place. They were loved and respected by a large circle of friends and acquaintances both here and at Westminster who sympathize with the family in their bereavement. She was buried today in Pasadena.

The South Coast Improvement Association will hold its next meeting at Seal Beach next Tuesday. They have started a drive for raising a fund of $8000 for advertising the advantages along the south coast. At a recent meeting at Balboa a committee consisting of T. B. Talbert, J. A. Arnitage and L. W. Wallace was appointed to confer with the State Highway Commission relative to immediate action on the coast boulevard.

W. R. Anderson, proprietor of Anderson's Cycles, had a narrow escape Wednesday evening while crossing the railroad tracks at Los Alamitos. Somehow his wheels were caught in the crossing and quick as a flash he was overturned in the ditch at the side of the road, breaking the windshield and a part of the top and lights off, but fortunately no one in the machine was hurt.

Miss Nellie Wilson of Santa Ana returned home Wednesday from spending a week's vacation with her aunt, Miss Virginia Walker of 406 Eleventh street.

Rev. Cowgill of Covina is spending a short vacation in the city and enjoying the ocean breezes.

BOY THROWS MATCH, GIRL BADLY BURNED

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Muriel Van Velsor, 7-year-old daughter of Mrs. Nina Van Velsor of 4261 Randolph avenue, was probably fatally burned yesterday. The child's clothing caught fire from an ignited match, thrown at her by a boy playmate, according to the police.

The child's dress, of a thin filmy material, was a mass of flames in a moment and the boy, terrified, fled. Mrs. P. D. Doan of 4245 Randolph street, attracted by her screams, rushed to the little girl and extinguished the flames by wrapping her in a rug. The little sufferer was treated at the receiving hospital and later removed to the county hospital, where death is expected by attending surgeons.

MRS. O. N. OLESON NOT EXPECTED TO RECOVER

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, July 11.—Mrs. O. N. Oleson lies in a precarious condition at San Diego with but slight chance of recovery, according to a letter just received by Mrs. B. A. Farrar. The letter was written at the dictation of Mrs. Oleson by her sister, who, together with her mother, is with her.

Two months ago Rev. Oleson died suddenly of pneumonia and the day of his funeral Mrs. Oleson contracted pneumonia, and since that time has not had sufficient strength to allow of her being propped up in bed. Three physicians have attended her and a graduate nurse is with her all the time but no definite disease can now be pronounced as the cause of her extended illness. She suffers no pain, she says. She considers that her condition has slightly improved the past week but the doctors hold out but little hope for her recovery.

Mrs. Oleson's many friends here will be grieved to learn of her condition, she having been well known here when her husband was pastor of the Wintersburg Methodist Church for a year.

REVIEWS MONEY AS SPENT BY COUNTIES

California Taxpayers Journal: Tax levies for the ensuing fiscal year are now attracting the serious attention of taxpayers and county officials, therefore we believe that a brief review of the levies made during the past two years will at least prove interesting, and may even assist in the solving of some of the difficulties now being encountered in making the levies for the fiscal year of 1919-1920.

The amount of taxes levied for all purposes by the counties of California for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, was $65,129,980.47, and the amount levied for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, was $70,874,977.14, an increase of $5,744,996.67 or 8.82 per cent.

For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, a total of $38,407,874.05 was levied for general county purposes, while for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, the amount of these levies was $40,505,880.00. The increase for the year 1919 was $2,098,005.95 or 5.46 per cent.

A more detailed analysis of these tax levies for general county purposes bring out the following facts: For expenses and salaries, not including roads, hospitals, bond interest, etc., we find that in 1918 the levies amounted to $23,804,719.53 and in 1919 the amount was $25,374,289.89, an increase of $1,569,570.36 or 6.59 per cent.

For road and bridge construction and maintenance, $5,768,787.96 was levied in 1918, while $6,132,265.43 was levied in 1919, an increase of $363,477.47 or 6.30 per cent.

A decrease of $254,751.05 or 9.81 per cent is shown in the 1919 levies for hospitals and indigents. A decrease of $23,705.37 or 10.59 per cent is also shown in the 1919 levies for building by direct taxation, while the decrease in 1919 for advertising the counties amounted to $9,501.79 or 5.8 per cent.

Tax levies of 1919 for interest and redemption of county debt increased $461,726.73 or 8.98 per cent.

DOG SITS TIGHT AS MOTOR LEAPS CLIFF

COLUMBIA, Pa., July 11.—You cannot scare a dog, says V. Ellis Simpson, who saw the acid test of courage administered on Lincoln street the other afternoon. Ellis had brought his machine to a stop and tightened the emergency brakes. During his absence the car, in some unaccountable manner, traveled off, went over a cliff and after plunging about forty feet struck a boulder and stopped. It was then hauled back by motor truck. Simpson's dog was still sitting on the front seat.

A Period Of Great Promise

Now that the trumpets have heralded the final conclusion of world peace, it is only reasonable to assume that an era of marked prosperity is about to unfold itself. There is abundant work; wages, as a whole, were never so good; money has a wide and fluent circulation; home products are bringing record prices. All in all the outlook is splendid.

There will be industrial expansion, there will be business development, there will be civic improvements, there will be increased building activity.

May we recommend that you place yourself in position to take advantage of the period of great promise upon which, we are firmly convinced, this community is about to launch, by making a financial connection with this bank.

Go shopping with a definite purpose; do not be lured into purchases which you have not planned.

Choose slowly and thoughtfully. Learn to recognize quality. A reliable salesman will help you in this.

Do not expect great savings from the bargain counter unless you are a good judge of materials.

Choose good materials for things that will get hard wear.

Avoid novelties and fads in design and color. They soon become tiresome and the price usually protects the merchant against loss from left-over stock.

Reckon in advance how much material you need.

In buying ready-made clothing, insist on good materials, style, and workmanship. If you always do this the dealers will be encouraged to supply them.

Be sure that the thing you choose is becoming to you and appropriate to its purpose.

Look for simplicity of line and decoration. Garments extreme in style are never economical and rarely becoming.

GOAT GETS "GOAT" THREE ANAHEIM LADS

ANAHEIM, July 11.—Wayne Goodale is some goat hunter we'll say. He is now at Catalina with the Y. M. C. A. and is enjoying a season of camp life. Several days ago the camp went on a goat hunt and Wayne and his partner spied one behind a cactus patch. Wayne slipped around one way and his partner the other and biff—Wayne and the goat came together head on. Wayne had presence of mind enough, however, to pull himself together and hang on. All three started triumphantly back to camp, the boys feeling very proud of their prize. However, the goat had other plans and proved himself to be a fairly good sprinter in spite of the rocks. When they neared a ravine he made a wild dash for liberty, throwing Wayne down and badly bruising him.

MEXICAN CRAZED BY MARIJUANA, GRABS CHILD

Rushes Little One to His Room, Where Officer Ballard Arrests Him

Crazed by smoking marijuana, Librado Samona this morning grabbed a little Mexican girl baby on the sidewalk near his mother and rushed away with the child, going to his room at Garfield hotel, at the corner of Garfield and Fourth streets. The mother, with other children, was standing on the sidewalk near the rooming house.

Motorcop Ballard was sent to rescue the child, and when he entered the room of the crazed Mexican, he found the fellow sitting on the bed, hugging the baby. Making certain that the man was not armed, Ballard took hold of him. The Mexican grabbed the baby by the arms and threw her on the bed, almost dashing her head against the side of the wall. A short scuffle ensued, Ballard finally subduing and arresting the man.

Samona accompanied him peacefully to the county jail, but when effort was made to place him in a cell, he fought like wild, and it required the assistance of two or three other officers to get the man in a cell. Officer John Combs arrived at the lodging house at about the time Ballard started for the jail, and the two officers took Samona to the bastille.

A search of Samona's room by the officers failed to locate any firearms, but a large number of cartridges were found.

BEACH OFFICER IS HELD TO ANSWER

Gunsolus of East Newport, was in Justice Cox's court yesterday afternoon for preliminary examination, and was held to answer to the superior court. He is out on bail, which was furnished two weeks ago following his arrest. Henry made no defense to the charge, reserving whatever fight he might make for the higher court. The story of the alleged assault was told by several witnesses. One was that Gunsolus was hit on the head by a revolver in the hands of Henry after Gunsolus had sat down on a bench in front of his store. Another story was to the effect that Gunsolus had just released his hold on Henry, stepped back two or three steps, and was just sitting down when he was struck.

Witnesses examined at the hearing were Gunsolus and his son, H. W. Gunsolus, Mrs. M. W. Fine, Mrs. Bertha Young, Dr. Conrad Richter, Jacob N. Swartz, May Kruger, and Clyde Goodykoonz.

FOREST FIRE LOSS IS BEING REDUCED

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—Increased interest by visitors to the National Forests, settlers and others in the forest-fire prevention campaign has been shown this year, and there is hope that this year's loss will show beneficial results from the effort to convince the general public that the great woodlands are public property, and that it is the public's duty to protect them.

The loss in 1918 is considered to have been remarkably small in view of the dangerous condition caused by drought and periods of high winds. Forest fires burned over 695,000 acres of National Forest lands in 1918 and caused a loss of $688,000 to the government in timber, forage, and young growth, according to figures compiled by the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

In addition to the actual loss in timber and forage, the fires of 1918 entailed extra expenditures by the government of $714,000 for the employment of additional laborers to fight the fires, for the purchase of additional equipment and supplies and for the transportation of the fire fighters.

There were 5,573 fires on the National Forests, and all but 2,457, set by lightning, were caused by human agencies. Railroads caused 618 fires; careless campers were responsible for 943. There were 257 incendiary fires, which occurred for the most part in Oregon, California and Arkansas. The remainder of the fires were caused by various forms of carelessness on the part of settlers and other users of the National Forests.

DRUIDIC RITES ARE REVIVED AT MEETING

PITTSBURGH, July 11.—Ancient Druidic rites were revived at the annual convocation of the American Gorsedd here. The ceremonies took place in Schenley Park. More than 2,000 Welshmen from all parts of the country and a number from foreign countries were present.

Rev. William Surdial of Middlepoint, O., the American Archdruid, conducted the ceremonies. In the midst of a circle composed of unhewn pillars the archdruid stood on the Logan stone. In front of the unhewn pillars an officer was stationed. All the officers appeared in the old Druidic robes and the accompaniment to all musical selections was by harpist. The principal feature of the ceremonies was the unsheathing of the sword, an ancient custom, which has been traced back to 1700 years before the Christian era.

Among the more prominent guests of honor were Hon. James T. Thomas, member of English Parliament and leader of the Labor Party in Great Britain, and Sir Joseph Davies, also a member of Parliament and former Secretary to Lloyd George.

25,000 "SINKERS" DAILY OUTPUT OF FACTORY

The Knights of Columbus have established the largest doughnut factory on earth. It is located in Germany and makes "slinkers" for the doughboys of the American army of occupation. The average daily output is 25,000 doughnuts; though the record for one day is 42,500. Each month the factory uses 60,000 pounds of flour, 20,000 pounds of sugar, 4,000 pounds of butter and like ingredients. Needless to say the doughboys are "strong" for the doughnuts.

SOUNDS WARNING NOTE TO CARE FOR FORESTS

Trees of North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky Being Exhausted

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 11.—Ever since the settlers along the Atlantic seaboard pushed westward through North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky; ever since Daniel Boone felled the trees that went into the first log house in the Blue Grass country, the smacking of the woodman's axe and the crashing down of monarchs of the forest have made an almost ceaseless refrain in these states, endowed by nature with woodlands of an expanse that seemed limitless. The woodmen, however, are nearing the end of the trail. The forests of North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, along with the forests of all other states in the East, are rapidly being exhausted. If the cutting out of the forests goes on as it has gone on and without any provision for the preservation of part of them or for the growing of new forests, in a surprisingly few years there will be no lumber producing forests left in the East.

TEXAS IS TO SPEND

$76,000,000 ON ROADS

A grand total of $76,216,000 is to be spent on roads in Texas during 1919 and 1920, according to a statement issued by the state highway department. Already approximately $50,000,000 in bonds has been voted by counties of the state, and $22,000,000 in bonds is proposed but not yet voted upon. This represents only ninety-four counties out of a potential possibility of 250 counties which can vote bonds. The government has allotted $16,000,000 to Texas. The state highway department has an income of approximately $800,000 a year, and this will amount to approximately $2,800,000 state aid when the 1920 fees are available.

These three states are regarded by forestry service officials as among the most important forested states in the East. They produce great quantities of lumber and other forest products. North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky still have great areas of forest lands.

The exhaustion of forests in these three states is indicated by official government figures of lumber production for 1899 and 1917—the latest year for which they are available.

Other reasons why the forests of Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina must be preserved are that the streams traversing them have their origin in the woodlands and depend upon them for their regular flow.

MEDAL TYPICAL OF COUNTY TO BE PRESENTED SERVICE MEN

Souvenir For "Home Welcoming" Selected By Men Home From France

A round bronze medal, with proper inscription and design typical of Orange county, last night was selected as the souvenir by which the high appreciation of the people of Orange county will be perpetuated in the minds of the gallant Orange county men and women who took up the battle of freedom in the World War. The selection was made by a committee of service men from the executive committee of the Orange County Service Men's Association and was ratified by the executive committee of the Orange County War Service Recognition Association at a meeting held at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bisby at Laguna Beach. The service men's committee consisted of Lieutenants C. D. Swanner of Santa Ana and L. W. Blodgett of Huntington Beach and Sergeants Stanley Reinhaus and George Platt of Santa Ana.

The medal will be presented in a rather plush case. An order for 2000 or less, should it be determined later that this number will not be required, was authorized by the committee. Names of men in the service are being gathered as rapidly as possible, in order to determine how many souvenirs should be secured. As a means of ascertaining how many will be in attendance at the "Home Welcoming" on September 9 at Orange County Park, papers of the county have been requested to publish coupons which service men or their relatives may forward to Chas. D. Swanner, in the Farmers & Merchants Bank building, Santa Ana.

Plating the park so as to be nearly as possible represent the various sections of the county, will make it possible for the men in each section to register at the headquarters of their respective districts, thus affording a splendid means of checking up on men who are in attendance, so that there will be no duplication and no confusion in awarding the medals.

Mrs. A. J. Lawton will appoint a woman for each of the district headquarters to look after this particular feature.

Mothers and fathers of the boys who made the supreme sacrifice will not be overlooked and each family will receive the county medal.

Records show that there were eighteen women in the county who went into service as Red Cross nurses and they will be given the same honor as the service men.

Membership Campaign Date Set
The week of August 5-12 was officially designated as the week for the big campaign to secure not less than 20,000 members for the association. The membership fee will be $1 or more, the more being for those who want to contribute a little extra to the fine cause. It is estimated that $20,000 or more will be required to put over the big holiday event. It is hoped to have every member of every family in the county represented in the membership.

The different districts of the county have been assigned quotas, the basis being the percentage used in distributing the $100,000 purchase of Liberty

Fighting Pastor Will Relate His War Experiences

EXPERIENCES overseas as seen by a fighting parson—who shouldered his gun and got into the midst of the carnage as one of Uncle Sam's fighting heroes—will be the treat for those who attend services at the First M. E. church next Sunday evening.

Those experiences will be related by a former pastor of this city, who refused a chaplaincy that he might serve in the trenches. Rev. Fred B. Trotter, former pastor of the Richland Avenue church, is the man. He believes that militarism is bad for any nation.

Rev. Trotter is a graduate of U. S. C. and was in charge of the church at Patterson, Cal., when he demonstrated his Americanism by surrendering his exemption claims as a minister and voluntarily placed himself in the draft and was accepted. His regiment was one of the first to go overseas. He was in the battle of the Argonne, where he was wounded by a machine gun bullet.

He was born in Ireland and educated and naturalized in America. He was a keen observer of the war and European conditions. His facility for conveying his impressions to others is such as to insure a most entertaining address.

FULLERTON FIRE FIEND ESCAPES TWO SHOTS

FULLERTON, July 11.—Shooting at a man in an orchard, whom they believed responsible for an attempt to burn down the Citrus Association packing house on Yorba Linda boulevard, the packing house watchman and the man who discovered the blaze went to where the man was standing and found a handkerchief saturated with oil. The man succeeded in making his escape. What grievance the man had against the association to cause him to attempt destruction of the packing house, is not known.

The blaze was discovered just after it had been started in a pile of boxes against the packing house. The watchman had made his rounds and had gone upstairs, when a man driving in an auto a few seconds later discovered the blaze. The fire had not gotten under way and was easily put out. After extinguishing the flames, the watchman and the man who discovered the blaze, armed with a shotgun, started out to search the vicinity. They saw a man standing in an orchard and took two shots at him. He escaped. Going to where he was standing, they found the handkerchief saturated with oil.

Whether the man was a disgruntled employee who had been discharged or was an L. W. W., is not determined.

CLAUDE JOHNSON HOME FROM WAR ZONE, SERVED 18 MONTHS

Skull Was Fractured on Dark Road While Carrying Dispatch on Front Lines

Speeding along dark roads on a motorcycle at breakneck speed and driving an ambulance in the same manner, steering only by instinct and not because he could see the road, was the common experience overseas of Claude Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, 218 South Main street, who has just arrived home with his honorable discharge from the army.

He bears the scars of nearly fifteen wounds received "over there," the worst one of which was a fractured skull which kept him in the hospital for four months. Although this injury was received many months ago, no word of it had been said in his letters, and it was not until the soldier had arrived home, fully recovered, that members of his family were informed of the occurrence.

Johnson was reticent today about talking of his experiences overseas to a reporter. "Can the notoriety," he said, "but his friends who had been privileged to learn something of what he had done talked more freely."

Johnson went from Santa Ana to Monterey and thence overseas, where he served as a motorcycle dispatch rider and ambulance driver, leaving for France in March, 1918.

Suffered Fractured Skull
On one occasion, when he was carrying dispatches near the front lines, where all night driving was done without lights, he was hitting her up about seventy miles an hour. Heavy fighting was in progress, his orders were important, and Johnson was making all speed possible. Then something broke. Johnson, badly injured, was picked up and taken to the hospital where he remained four months. He had sustained a fractured skull and other injuries, but not a word of the occurrence came back to relatives.

On another occasion, Johnson was driving, at night, an ambulance filled with wounded men, and in charge of a lieutenant. Suddenly the driver stopped his car, without knowing why. Something had told him there was danger ahead, but he did not know what it was. He could not tell the lieutenant what was wrong, and the officer upbraided him for stopping when the wounded men needed attention. Then Johnson walked ahead down the road and a short distance away found an embankment over which the ambulance would have plunged had not some strange instinct prompted him to stop.

The soldier's brother, Carl (Shorty) Johnson, also well known here, arrived in Camp Merritt from overseas on Wednesday, and is expected home within a few weeks.

BENECIA PROTESTS ARSENAL FUND CUT

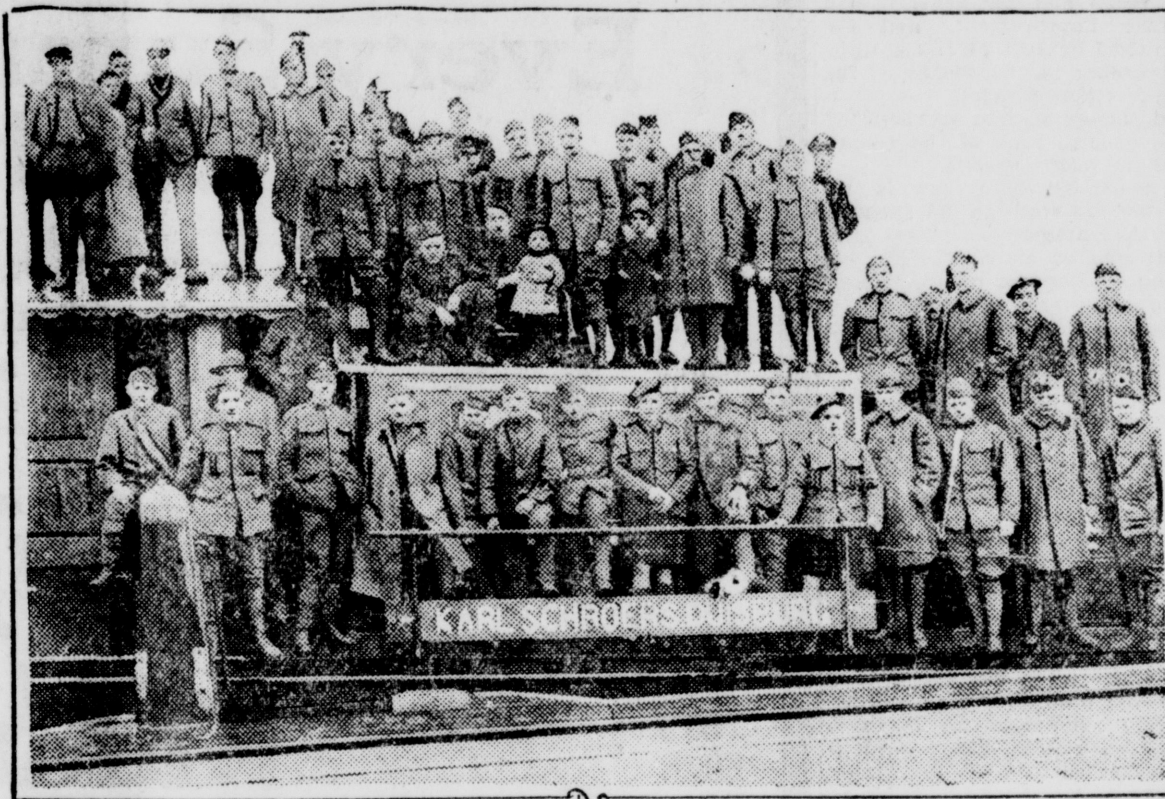

BENECIA, Cal., July 11.—In the face of the Pacific Coast demand that the Benecia Arsenal be recognized by the War Department as an important station, even to the extent that it be expanded into a manufacturing arsenal, word has just been received from Washington that there is a disposition to cut its appropriations so deeply that the great plant would be doomed to decay.

The officer in charge filed with the War Department an estimate of expenses for the next fiscal year of $130,000. He has just been advised that his figures have been cut to $20,736. This would reduce the force of twenty-one civilian employees to four, barely sufficient to handle the ordinary accounting work, not taking into consideration the care of the millions of dollars worth of equipment, buildings and other valuable government material which is now on the reservation.

The Benecia Chamber of Commerce has wired protests to all of the California representatives in Washington and there is a bare possibility that the deficiency in the appropriation may be made up from some special fund. The argument is used that it would be wanton waste on the part of the government to permit an already established arsenal, in which millions are invested, to become practically valueless by reason of neglect and a policy of ignoring the demands of the Pacific Coast.

Soldiers Find Entertainment Among Passengers on Slow Boats

COBLENZ, Germany, July 11.—American doughboys in Germany know something of the canal business in Holland. Rotterdam is the main supply depot for the Yanks along the Rhine.

Hundreds of the American soldiers have traveled down the famous old river to Rotterdam on the long low canal barges used in transporting the supplies to the troops.

Each week and often more frequently detachments of doughboys make the trip to assist in handling the supplies and many of them find much enjoyment in the slow ride on the barges. Other passengers are carried on these boats, which fact is appreciated by the Yank soldiers, who find more or less entertainment among them, especially with the children.

How the mummified body of a man found near Le Sueur, Minn., in a hollow tree he had entered in 1862 is told in a copy of the Mankato (Minn.) Daily Free Press, a copy of which has been received by C. E. Marshston of 822 Riverine, who thinks Santa Ana people might be interested in the startling discovery which was made on the farm of Edward Gleek, in the woods along the river.

In clearing a piece of land it became necessary to cut down a gigantic white oak tree, which broke in falling, disclosing the fact that it was hollow for a distance of about fifteen feet, beginning several feet above the ground and the cavity ending in a large open

HIGHWAY UP OLD SADDLEBACK IS THOUGHT TOO EXPENSIVE

Improvement of County Park and Road to Camp Ground To Be Asked

When the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county meets on July 30, its good roads committee will recommend that the Associated go on record in favor of a ten-cent tax levy by the board of supervisors for road paving, this to be in addition to and separate from the usual forty-cent road levy upon property outside of incorporated cities.

It will not recommend that the proposed road to Old Saddleback be attempted at this time but will ask that the county expend considerable money in the improvement of the county park, that it investigate the feasibility of building a road from Trabuco canyon over the ridge into camping grounds in the head of the Santiago canyon, and that it co-operate fully with federal forest officials in the establishment of public camping grounds in the Trabuco.

Three members of the good roads committee, Charles Bygabroad of Anaheim, H. T. Thomson of Villa Park and H. A. Lake of Garden Grove were present.

In order to better understand the decision of the good roads committee last night in regard to a ten-cent paving levy, a statement concerning the situation is necessary.

Between the state highway at the county hospital and Garden Grove road is three miles of unpaved road. Merchants of Orange recently started a movement to have that road paved, and Garden Grove people joined in the movement. Meetings were held with Supervisor Edwards at Orange and Supervisor Talbert at Garden Grove.

For District Paving
In the meantime, however, plans were well along for paving four miles of road at Villa Park and a mile and a half on Grand avenue and Fairhaven. Both of these projects are to be carried out on the district plan. Edwards agreed to give about one-fourth of the cost of the Villa Park paving out of his Fourth supervisorial road district funds, and property owners signed up to pay the other three-fourths. That means a cost of about $20 an acre for all land included in the district.

For the Grand avenue and Fair-

A meeting of the advisory committee and the executive committee will be held at Orange County Park on the evening of August 1, about 7 o'clock, with a barbecued steak feed as one of the attractive features.

Mrs. A. J. Lawton has exclusive control of the features of entertainment for the governor and other distinguished visitors who may be present. Invitations will be sent to many prominent men, among them Marshal Foch, General Pershing, Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau, President Wilson, and Secretaries Daniels and Baker.

It is not improbable that President Wilson will be on the coast at the time of the celebration and Postmaster Ahlborn of Anaheim gave assurance that he had a personal friend who had considerable influence with the President. This man has been in constant communication with the President in his absence at the peace conference.

Mrs. Lawton has associated a number of women with her in developing the plans. A steak barbecue is proposed as a compliment to Governor Stephens, as he is known to enjoy such a feast. Limitations must necessarily prevail with reference to the number who will be invited to join with the governor in the barbecue. The heads of the various war activities will be invited, with their wives, as will also others who are prominently identified with activities in the county.

It is believed that at best the number cannot be kept below 200.

Music Chairman

"Pop" Endicott, director of the band at Anaheim, was chosen as chairman of the music committee. The committee will have charge of the brass and orchestral music for the day and will prepare the program. Endicott will select other musicians of the committee as members of his committee. It is expected that every organized band in the county will be available for the day.

Executive committee members in cities maintaining bands will be responsible for the appearance of the musical organization in his city.

It is hoped to have three or four platforms for dancing. They will be located in different sections of the park.

It is the opinion of the committee that dancing will be one of the features that will be more greatly appreciated by the service men than any other line of entertainment. Because of this belief, the committee is giving special attention to the dancing.

The roads to Orange County Park will be alive with machines and other vehicles on the day of the welcome. Strict regulations of traffic will be necessary in order to guard against accidents. Sheriff Jackson has accepted responsibility for policing the two routes and every precaution will be taken to protect the lives of those who travel to the park.

Both the Villa Park and El Modena routes will be open to incoming traffic up to 2 p. m., with return by way of Villa Park only throughout the day. After 2 p. m., incoming traffic will be exclusively by way of El Modena grade.

The festivities will last until late at night. "We will let the boys stay as late as they want to," declared Chairman R. L. Bisby last night. "It is to be their day and their pleasure will be our pleasure."

With traffic to the park going exclusively by way of El Modena and return exclusively by the Villa Park route, possibility of accidents resulting from strings of machines going in either direction over the grade will be eliminated.

Feast Before Business

The meeting last night was preceded by a course dinner served at the White house by C. D. Bronner, Laguna Beach is proud of this cafe, and well the people might be. The dinner was served in good style and the appetizing vands were just "like mother's cooking."

The diners sat down to the tables at 7:30 and it was nearly an hour and a half later when they adjourned to the Bisby cottage.

A number of the men had their wives and all members of the executive committee were present except F. E. Hallman of Orange. Those at the dinner were Messrs. and Mmes. R. L. Bisby, J. C. Wallace, Major E. J. Marks, Horace Fine, Mrs. A. J. Lawton and Messrs. E. E. French, Fred Ahlborn, Lieut. L. W. Blodgett, Lieut. C. D. Swanner, Sergt. Stanley Reinhaus, Sergt. pay for the road that the rest of the county with them would use.

However, the committee did not take any action for or against the road district plan. It was the disposition of the committee to leave to the supervisors the method of spending whatever road paying money was raised, but it was clear that the committee was in favor of making a county policy for each year, raising paving money to extend the county pavement system.

Old Saddleback Road County Surveyor McBride, called to the meeting, said that the most feasible road to the summit of Saddleback Peak would be by way of Silverado canyon. By a line it is six miles from the end of the present road to the top of the peak, and it would take thirteen miles of road to reach the top. He said that this road would cost a lot of money, probably no less than $30,000 a mile.

"There is no use making a road like that unless you make it a safe road," said he. McBride said that the contour for a road from Trabuco canyon was less favorable, though it could be done. The objection to the Silverado road was that it passes through no camping spots. It is all rock and brush from the Silverado to the top. On the Trabuco-Santiago route, the line camping sites along the upper Santiago would be opened up. A road of a couple of miles over the ridge from the Trabuco side to the Santiago might be built. McBride could not give an estimate on the cost until he had looked over some features of the ground.

The question of the Old Saddleback road was up as a measure for increasing recreation opportunities in this county. After finding out that the cost would run so high, the committee concluded that some other avenue of providing recreation opportunities would be more advisable at this time, and immediately the improvement of the county park was opened up for discussion. It was the opinion of the committee that the county could get much better results for the public's recreation by improvement at the county

Advertisement TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion. Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisurated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisurated magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat. You will find that provided you take a little bisurated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and more-over, the continued use of the bisurated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

BODY FOUND AFTER YEARS INSIDE TREE

ing concealed among the branches of the lower side of the tree, which leaned considerably. Within this hollow was found the mummified body of a man, not at all decayed, but dried and shriveled by the lapse of time into something resembling the best Egyptian mummy.

Mr. Gleek, on being summoned by the frightened laborers, recognized at once in the mummy the body of Jean LaRue, a former servant of Gleek, who had mysteriously disappeared from the farm August 29, 1862.

On the day, which was during the Sioux uprising, a boat load of soldiers on their way up the Minnesota river from St. Paul to New Ulm, foolishly discharged their muskets many times as they steamed up the river above Henderson, carrying terror to the hearts of people along the river who were already about to flee from the dreaded Indians. At Le Sueur one of the bullets thus discharged wounded a small boy, Cyrus McEwen, in the leg.

Was Struck With Fear Gleek says that when Jean LaRue heard the firing he seemed to nearly lose his reason from fear, rushed into the house, seized his rifle and some other belongings, including about $700 in money, and fled into the woods. He must have known of this hollow tree, sought to hide there, slipped down too far, and being unable to extricate himself, must have perished there where his body, preserved in the living oak, failed to decay. His rifle, bullet pouch and powder horn were found by him and the money, $785.50, was found in his pocket.

Also there was found the diary which Gleek says LaRue always faithfully kept, and in it, undated, but on the page following the one dated Friday, August 29, 1862, was written in a trembling hand, the following: "Can not get out; surely must die. If ever found, send me and all my money to my mother, Madame Suzanne LaRue, near Tarascon, in the province of Rouches Du Phone, France."

Through the consul at Marseilles, Gleek will endeavor to learn something of the dead man's relatives, but there is not much hope of doing so at this late date.

MILLION DOLLAR FACTORY GOAL FULLERTON

Business Men's Organization Takes Steps to Secure Shirt Plant

FULLERTON, July 11.—A new 15 or 20-acre park for Fullerton, the zoning of the city so as to segregate business houses from the residence districts, the construction of a skyline highway, the securing of a million-dollar factory, the general advancement and development of natural resources, were among the most important matters which came up for discussion at the regular monthly meeting of the Fullerton Board of Trade which was held at the rooms of the Fullerton Club.

The subject of the park and what it would mean to this city in the way of advertising and an incentive for people to make Fullerton their home, was the one big outstanding feature of the meeting. The tract which is the one desirable spot for the proposed park, lies north of the high school, along the state highway and could be made the beauty spot of Orange county.

Major Marks stated that the matter of acquiring the park tract in question had been taken up by the board of trustees and is being considered, and that this was the time for the board of trade and all others interested to give the park project their united support.

R. T. Brown spoke of the proposed skyline highway, it being a pet hobby of his and he has never given up the idea of having the highway constructed. He was with the original surveying party, they traveling over the route on foot several years ago, and secured a map of the survey which cost $75, and which he still has. He claimed that a person traveling over the skyline highway could see more of the valley in a few minutes than could be obtained by half a day's travel through this whole section. Mr. Chapman has offered to construct a stone bridge across his property as an outlet if the highway is constructed.

After Factory
Nathan Rabinowitz suggested that the board of trade try and secure the shirt and overall factory recently turned down by the Los Angeles city council when the factory people desired to build in the Westlake district. His suggestion met with instant response.

E. J. Fuller made a motion, which prevailed, that the industrial committee call on the factory people in person and discuss the matter with them. Nathan Rabinowitz volunteered to accompany the committee and introduce them to the proper parties, he being personally acquainted with them.

A committee appointed with the view of securing a parking place and camping ground for auto parties, reported through their chairman, R. T. Brown, that they had been offered a site below the Santa Fe tracks, owned by the Santa Fe company, which they would rent or sell, and that the matter was now in the hands of the city board of trustees, who expected to purchase the site.

Major Marks was the author of three motions, all of which prevailed. One was that the city planning committee be instructed to acquire reservoir hill property for park purposes. The second was that the supervisors be requested to spend sufficient funds to beautify all of Orange County Park, as there is a considerable portion of the park not improved. The third was that the secretary be instructed to write California representatives and senators requesting that they favor legislation to permit national banks to lend money on city property or to favor legislation that the government provide long-time loans at a small rate of interest to city land owners in order that they might build homes.

FORMER WINTERSBURG SOLDIER DISAPPOINTED

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, July 11.—Frank Ulrich received a letter this week from George McCandless, who was well known by many here when employed as horseshoer in Ulrich's blacksmith shop at Wintersburg.

The letter was sent from India, where McCandless had just arrived, having been transferred there from Mesopotamia, where he had seen service for two years with the English troops.

McCandless was en route to Ireland, his native country, when his transfer was made and this proved a great disappointment to him as he had planned on a visit with his parents there, after which he expected to return here immediately. He now has no idea when he will be released.

He enlisted in the English army after being turned down by U. S. medical examiners for some slight physical defect when he attempted to enlist in the United States army.

RESOLUTIONS FOR MRS. AMANDA HUFF

WINTERSBURG AND SMELTZER, July 11.—Wednesday afternoon the Methodist Missionary Society met with Mrs. John Cady in regular session. The usual mission study and program was discontinued for the day and the time devoted to the passing of resolutions eulogizing the memory of a loved member, Mrs. Amanda Huff, who died recently. The resolutions follow:

"Whereas, Death has called from our midst a friend and dearly beloved associate; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, the Missionary Society of the M. E. church, desire to express a tribute to her memory.

"Words we know have little power to give genuine consolation and yet we feel that we must tell the bereaved how deeply we sympathize for them in their great loss.

"Her gentle nature and loving sacrifice were known by many in the homes, in the churches which she loved, and in the organizations in which she worked. It was in our different homes that we learned to love her best.

"We know that one whom we knew to live her Christianity as well as profess could not be other than a devoted wife, loving mother and kind neighbor.

"She helped to make the world a better place to live in, and the good of such a life cannot be envied when the mortal remains have been confined to earth, but the influence she shed around her will live on and on.

"It can be said of her, 'I have fought a good fight; I have finished the course; I have kept the faith.'

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the relatives.

Submitted by committee on resolutions.

STANDARD OIL BRINGS IN ANOTHER BIG WELL

FULLERTON, July 11.—The Standard Oil Company has brought in a 1000-barrel on Locke-Kraemer tract, the find being made at 2800 feet. The drilling crew starting another well in the same field, made 500 feet in the first two days of operation. Material is on the ground for another new well, which will be known as Kraemer No. 4. Bringing in this well at this depth has created another great stir in the vicinity and there is a big demand for leases in the Placencia-Kraemer district.

MISSIONARY TO HAVE CHARGE OF SERVICES

TALBERT, July 11.—Rev. J. J. Woodson, pastor of the local M. E. Church, South, has received word that Miss Ellen Altier, missionary of the Homer Toberman home of Los Angeles, will be here Sunday evening with her Spanish class and take charge of the evening church service. Miss Altier and her girls give most interesting programs of speeches and music at the services they conduct and a large crowd is expected out Sunday evening to hear them.

Tomorrow (Saturday), July 12, at the Jewel City Cafe at Seal Beach, will be the inauguration of the grandest Girl Show ever produced in any cafe. Dancing, of course, all you want. Needless to mention meals; everybody agrees they are unsurpassed.

BUSINESS MEN OF ORANGE TALK BUILDING

Advisability Forming Building Associations to Erect Residences Discussed

ORANGE, July 11.—The shortage of residences in Orange is so acute as to result in driving away people from town because there are no houses available, according to statements made at the meeting of the Orange Businessmen's Club at the Commercial Club.

Acting on reports of this acute condition, the club appointed a committee to take steps for the relief of the shortage. It was pointed out that the business interests of the town are being seriously damaged by having people go away who otherwise would make their homes here. Plans for forming building associations for the erection of houses were discussed. A committee consisting of E. W. Bollinger, W. G. Hagen, J. W. Morrison and J. F. Craemer, was appointed to promote activity in building by whatever means possible.

The proposal to have the county levy a special 10-cent road tax for the coming year, for the improvement of various county roads, was endorsed, and a committee appointed to cooperate with a Santa Ana committee in the matter. W. J. Kogler, E. H. Smith and F. A. Grote were named on this committee.

Interesting talks were made by G. C. Woods, recently back from Chicago, and by Sergeant Smith, lately returned from France.

Initiate Three
The Royal Neighbors met with about forty members in attendance. Three new members were initiated into the lodge. They were Mrs. E. V. Reed, Miss Jennie Sawyer and daughter, Miss Bessie Sawyer. After the regular meeting closed the committee on entertainment invited the members to a theater party at the Colonial. A pleasant afternoon was spent enjoying the play, "O You Women."

Funeral Service Yesterday
Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Mrs. Sarah Shields at her home at 450 North Lemon street. Interment was made in Fairhaven cemetery. Mrs. Shields leaves two sons, G. W. and L. C. Shields of Orange and several grandchildren and one daughter in Oregon.

Died at Age of 82
Mrs. Mary Hotelling of 145 South Cypress street, passed away at her home yesterday. She leaves two children, Mrs. Lottie Tyrrell and E. F. Seigfried of Orange. Mrs. Hotelling was 82 years and 11 months of age. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m.

If you do not like a human interest story.

My friends advised me to quit after July 1st, but I couldn't see it. It would not be right to close the most beautiful Cafe in Southern California. So I got busy, and engaged Mr. E. G. Wood, America's foremost Revue producer, and told him to go ahead and give me the best Show he ever put on, regardless of expense.

Then I engaged Monsieur Alfred Verriere, formerly in charge of the kitchen of the late King Luitpold, of Belgium, and recently chef at the Los Angeles Athletic Club. His instructions are: Nothing is too good for my patrons.

To make the combination complete I hired a Jazz Orchestra, and, believe me, you cannot make your feet behave when it plays.

And now, we are all set for the

GRITTY BATTLE BEING WAGED BY GLEASON

White Sox Edge Into First Place But Will Have
Hard Sledding

BY H. C. HAMILTON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, July 11.—Admiration might be expressed for the gritty struggle being put up for the American League championship race by Kid
Gleason and his White Sox.

The Yankees have been checked out of first place for the time being and the Chicagoans have ascended. The main difference between the two clubs seems to be a vast amount of nerve, largely in favor of the Sox.

Gleason has three pitchers—real ones—while Miller Huggins is able to trout out a young army of slappers, all of them more or less stars. But with his trio Gleason is showing great finesse.

The Yankees undoubtedly are the class of the league, so far as figuring a baseball club for its real worth is concerned, but there are circumstances which compel attention of the fact that Kid Gleason is manipulating the reins over an organization that will carry the fight to the last ditch.

Williams, Cicotte and Faber are carrying the burden for the Gleason gang, with only occasional assistance from Shellenbach, Kerr and Danforth.
Huggins is able to throw Quinn, Thor-nhagen, Shawkey, Shore and Schneider into the fray in regular order, and he has to fall back on Russell, Mogridge, O'Doul and Nelson, any one of whom would be welcomed with a blessed hand by about seven other clubs.

The going is bound to be tough for the Yankees. Gleason's fighting spirit is sunk deep into the hearts of the Sox.

DEMPSEY WILL ENTER CAMPAIGN ON STAGE

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Jack Dempsey will enter into an intensive campaign on the stage, according to a letter received today by George Hussey of Los Angeles from Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager.

"From now on we will devote all our time to the show business, where we can get the biggest money ever offered a boxer," Kearns wrote.
He said Jack is ready to meet any and all legitimate challengers but "right now there is no one who can hold a candle to Dempsey."

TILDEN, RICHARDS ARE DEFEATED AT TENNIS

CINCINNATI, O., July 11.—Bill Tilden and Vin Richards, eastern net wonders, went down to defeat here yesterday in the sectional title play before William Johnston of California and Sam Hardy of Chicago. The match went four sets. S. H. Voshell of New York lost to Robert Kinsey of California.

Handsomeness Trophy Offered For Rifle Shoot Winner In Inter-Allied Contest

American Marksmen Make Wonderful Scores In Preliminaries

PARIS, July 11.—The winner of the army rifle team competition in the interallied games at Paris will receive a handsome prize. It is known as the Pershing trophy. The trophy is of bronze and depicts an American soldier in action.

Competition in the match is keen and preliminary shoots have brought out some wonderful scores. The American team is expected to carry away the prize as scores made in the preliminaries have been considerably better than those made by teams representing the other allied armies.

Watching the Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero: Claude Williams.
His hurling hopped the White Sox back into first place, beating the Athletics 9 to 2.

The Browns hammered the Red Sox for a brace of victories, 5 to 1, and 4 to 3.

The Tigers and Washington made it an even up affair by splitting a doubleheader, the Tigers taking the first, 2 to 5, and dropping the second, 5 to 7.

Roger Peckinpaugh and the Yanks both had tough luck. Peck went hit-less for the first time in thirty games and the Yanks lost first place through splitting a double-header with the Indians.

Round Coast League Bases

Here run: Farmer, Beavers.
Big Bill James introduced himself to the league on the Oak mound by some wild heaving. The Bees won,
9 to 3.

Two runs in the ninth were just enough for the Rainiers to nose out the Angels, 2 to 1.

The Beavers came from behind, scored a brace of runs in the ninth and downed the Seals, 10 to 9.

The Senators' last inning rally failed to net them more than three tallies, and the Tigers gathered the game,
9 to 4.

ROTATION OF WATER AT FRESNO PLANNED

FRESNO, July 11.—Rotation of water in the first class canals connecting with Kings river has been announced by I. Teilmann, manager of the Fresno Canal and Land Company, in an effort to stave off the loss of fourth and fifth alfalfa crops in this valley.

The flow of Kings river into irrigation canals has decreased from 4000 to 900 feet per second and serious damage is threatened to late crops.

Crops have already been retarded
by the lowness of the water, declares Teilmann. The river is the lowest it has been for years and is steadily decreasing more than 100 feet per second per day. At this rate of decrease instead of 600,000 acres of land being irrigated, as under normal conditions, less than 100,000 can get irrigation.

Despite the rotation of canals the last two crops of garden stuff and alfalfa will be somewhat blighted, says Teilmann.

Bathless Day May Be Instituted In North Owing to Low Water

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—Bay district cities may be forced this year, as last, to institute the "bathless day"
in order to conserve the lowering water supply. According to Power Administrator H. C. Butler of the Railroad Commission, the power shortage in Northern California promises to be about as severe this year as it was a year ago.

"Early in the spring," declared Butler, "conditions looked favorable for an abundance of hydro-electric energy, but the large increase in load during the last two months and the rapid falling off of the water in the streams during the last three weeks have entirely changed the prospects. The comparatively heavy snows of last winter came late and did not furnish sufficient water to hold up the stream flows."

However, declares Butler, no orders are contemplated restricting the use of power for street and sign lighting, as were issued last year to protect the power supply of war industries.

OH JOY! HUBBY GETS PINCHED FOR SPEEDING

NOVATO, July 11.—"When he was arrested I was so happy that I could have kissed the arresting officer. He has made my life miserable with his reckless driving," declared Mrs. R.
Fuschel of San Francisco in a plea to Justice of the Peace Rudolf to fine her husband the maximum for speeding.

Rudolf, however, plastered on the customary $10 fine instead of the $1,000 maximum.

The Pershing Trophy.

AMERICAN FLEET PICKING MINES FROM OCEAN

Eighty U. S. Vessels Work at Dangerous Job In North Sea

LONDON, July 11.—Eighty U. S.
Navy mine sweepers are busy in the North Sea at a job almost as dangerous and, from the viewpoint of shipping, quite as important as hunting submarines.

They are clearing away the largest mine barrage in the world. This barrage, nearly 80 per cent American-made and American-laid, mines, is about 200 miles long and 45 miles wide. It closes the North Sea from Scotland to Norway.

The task has already resulted in a casualty toll of four vessels damaged, one officer killed and others wounded.
The U.S.S. Bobolink, the first victim, had her stern blown in by an exploding mine. Lieutenant Bruce was killed.
Several other officers and men, knocked overboard, were rescued. The U.S.S. Patuxent was badly damaged about the stern and the U.S.S. Rail slightly adamaged. All were of about 1,000 tons. The fourth was a smaller boat.

Captain Sexton, U. S. Naval chief of staff in England, said the Americans are getting "hep" to the undertaking and overcoming many of its difficulties.

Thus far the fleet has covered an area containing 4,000 mines. Of these, 45 per cent have been accounted for.
Where the remaining 65 per cent are, nobody knows. Captain Sexton estimated the mine hunt would keep the sweepers busy until October or November. It involves a personnel of about 2,500.

When the word was first mouthed around through the ranks that American gobs were going to pick up the mines they helped to lay a short time before, the general opinion was that it would be one of the most thrilling jobs yet. And no one has been disappointed. Equipped with maps showing approximately where every mine was dropped, the flotilla started out in twos, each pair dragging a cable between them.

The mines, the map said, were sown in strings. All the sweepers had to do was to straddle the line, pass from one end to the other, and the cable, between them, would do the rest.

Of course, the particular mine in question wouldn't be the only one to go off. The concussion would always set off others in immediately adjoining strings. These two exigencies were provided for on the map under the titles, "zone of extreme danger," "zone of possible danger" and beyond that "zone of safety." In addition, there would be a few other mines free-floating around in all three zones.

The first few days were rather disastrous. Captain Sexton and his staff in London began to dread opening the morning's dispatches. Gradually, with Yankee resourcefulness, the Americans seemed to be getting on top of the job, until now Captain Sexton is confident they are going to clean up the assignment with minimum losses.

CAN'T EAT POETRY, SO WIFE TO GET DIVORCE
LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Ruling that a woman cannot eat poetry, Superior Judge Taft today was prepared to enter a decree divorcing Bertha G. Fontaine, now of Long Beach, Cal., from C. Prince Fontaine, formerly of Dallas, Texas.

The technical grounds are neglect and desertion but Judge Taft stopped proceedings and announced he would grant the divorce when Mrs. Fontaine and two witnesses testified Fontaine devoted all his time to verse.

MILO POTTER GETS ODD GAS PIPE BOMB

Fred Slater is now at home for the summer vacation. He goes twice a week to Los Angeles to continue the treatments he has been taking while attending school there.

Mrs. E. Ray Moore returned home Thursday afternoon from the Santa Ana hospital, where she underwent a minor operation a few days previously. Mrs. C. C. Pratt is with her, and will remain for a time to assist her in the care of her home.

A late letter from Joe Gotthard received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gotthard, states he is still at Brest, France, and he has no idea when he will come home. It continues to rain in France as usual and since a month ago there had been but three or four sunny days this year. Gotthard, who is in the 8th Infantry, has been in the army a year the 22d of this month.

Miss Jennie Ufford spent Sunday and Monday as the guest of Miss Ethel Graham and upon her return home to Huntington Beach Monday evening, Miss Graham accompanied her. On Tuesday the young ladies went to Los Angeles to remain until Thursday while looking over a college which they contemplate entering in the fall.

Sunday school and the usual morning service will be held at the Wintersburg Methodist church next Sunday at the usual hours of 10 and 11 o'clock with the pastor in charge. Evening preaching service will again be discontinued as it has the past two Sundays. As the Methodist camp meeting opens Thursday of this week at Huntington Beach and will be followed immediately upon closing by the League Institute, all services will probably be discontinued after next Sunday for the duration of two seasons.

The Andrew Moore party, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moore, Roy Shafer, William Keseman and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Thompson, who are on a camping trip to Yosemite, are having a delightful outing, according to frequent cards received from Mrs. Moore. The party will extend the time of their absence somewhat as Roy Shafer has received an extension of time on his furlough, making this possible. This is the third week of their absence.

Automobile Club Thanks Register For Bond Boost

Los Angeles, July 9, 1919. Daily Register, Santa Ana, Calif. Gentlemen: May I express to you the sincere appreciation of the members, officers, directors, and employees of this organization of the loyal and enthusiastic support given by the Daily Register in the recent State Highway Bond Campaign.

The very decisive vote throughout the State favorable to this all-important issue is indicative of the determination of the people that California shall continue to add to the wonderful asset it already has in its good roads system. We feel that the aid of the public press has been a very large factor in the success of the campaign.

Cordially yours,
STANDISH MITCHELL,
Secretary.
Automobile Club of Southern California.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—Rev. Horace L. Macdonald, the young evangelist who recently eloped to Fresno with Mrs. Wealthie Shaw and was arrested there on complaint of his wife, who charged embezzlement, was yesterday served with papers in a suit for divorce, filed by Mrs. Catherine Layton Macdonald, alleging mental cruelty.

SANTA BARBARA, July 11.—Santa Barbara is to be distinguished in August with a swine show and a dog show. The swine show takes place in exclusive Montecito Vale, where the noted multi-millionaire families of the country have their winter homes. The dog show, otherwise called a bench show, is to be held on the grounds of the Belvedere.

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—H. Evans, a school principal at Monrovia, was fined $50 yesterday by Justice Bouldin of Azusa for leaving a campfire unattended. Deputy District Attorney Dennison produced evidence to show that the principal took a number of boys into San Gabriel canyon on a trip and failed to put out the campfire. John Gutierrez was fined $50 for a similar offense.

VENICE, July 11.—The mere matter of an inheritance of $100,000 is not going to interfere with the daily routine of Ingram Williams, 24, of Venice, and he says he is going to keep on "sprinkling soda water, take his meals at the same boarding house and remain at the beach city." Williams yesterday received a letter from his brother in Richmond, Va., stating that through the death of Thomas Nelson Williams, of Boynton, Va., he had fallen heir to part of the estate.

REDLANDS, July 11.—E. E. Hawley, a member of the firm of Hawley-King, which twenty years ago did most of the horse-drawn vehicle selling in Southern California, was a visitor here and gave figures showing how such firms lost out through the automobile and tractor. "There were 14,000 buggies sold in Los Angeles county alone in 1896," he said, "and 6500 wagons. Two years later the first automobiles appeared and thereafter the business declined steadily. Now I doubt if 100 buggies a year are sold in all Southern California."

MILLER NOTICED A DECIDED CHANGE

"Tanlac relieved me of my troubles just like it had been made especially for my case," said L. J. Miller, of 4231 Princeton avenue, Los Angeles, Calif., to a Tanlac representative recently.

"Two years ago I had a mighty bad case of ptomaine poisoning and, as a result of that, my stomach got in a terrible shape," continued Mr. Miller. "It just looked like everything I would eat would sour on my stomach and form gas and I would bloat up and it got so bad after awhile that nothing I would eat seemed to do me a particle of good. Then I had a touch of the flu last February and after that I seemed to get worse and finally had a complete breakdown and for two months I certainly was in a bad way and just suffering torture with my stomach. I was in so much pain I hardly dared to eat a thing and for weeks at a time I wouldn't be able to get more than three hours sleep out of the whole twenty-four, but would just roll and toss about in bed at night and get up in the morning feeling awfully weak and tired out completely. I tried dieting and almost everything that was suggested for my trouble but nothing I did or took helped me a particle till I began to take Tanlac."

"I happened to read where someone, that seemed to be suffering like I was, had been relieved by Tanlac and, as the name and address of this person was given, I felt confident it was all right and so I decided to try it, too. Well, I didn't seem to get any relief from the first bottle but by the time the second bottle was nearly finished I could notice a decided change. I really commenced to feel better then and wasn't troubled so much with sour stomach and gas and now I have taken several more bottles I feel so good in every way that I am ready to go back to work again. I can eat anything I want now and plenty of it, too, and everything I eat agrees with me perfectly, because I am never troubled with bloating any more and I sleep like a log every night and get up in the morning feeling strong and refreshed. I surely am thankful I got hold of Tanlac, and I am only too glad to recommend it to others that are suffering with stomach trouble and need building up, because I believe it will do the work, just like it did in my case."

Tanlac is sold in Santa Ana by Rowley Drug Co., in Fullerton by G. W. Finch, in La Habra by R. H. Rigdon's Pharmacy, in Orange by Dittmer's Mission Pharmacy, in Placentia by A. J. Robinson, in Tustin by Tustin Drug Co., in Brea by Brea Pharmacy, in Buena Park by Regal Drug Co., in Garden Grove by O. H. Anderson, and in Laguna Beach by Laguna Beach Pharmacy.—Advertisement.

OIL COMPANY NOW IS IN WATER BUSINESS

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11.—The August oil company went into business determined to sell oil.

Now they have applied for permission to sell water from the Railroad Commission, which has granted their scale of rates.

While digging for the oil, they hit water. The water sold by the company is used exclusively for boiler feed in the Midway and Sunset oil fields in Kern county.
